FOREWORD

It is indeed a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors. Plutarch (A, D, 46-120)

Every house is a quotation out of all forests and mines and stone quarries; and every man is a quotation from all his ancestors. Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882)

Each new life is the heir of all ages.
James A. Garfield (1831-1881)

As the smallest wave must go on till it crosses the Ocean, so influence of every ancestor must go on to the end of the generations of life. Each of us must feel in a degree the strength or weakness of each one of them. David Starr Jordan (1851-1931)

One is filled with enthusiasm tracing genealogy. Each pioneer record gotten by research was a lesson showing the responsibility of life, revealing their character. Those years at that early date were years of hardship; the pioneer had discouraging times, there was suffering and often the troubles were disastrous. However, their lives were full of adventures and, no doubt, from a favorable attitude for the best possible outcome of the adventures gave them pleasure as they planned and moved ahead toward the westward frontier - the unsettled regions of dense timber, of wild animals and the Indians.

It was the fearless pioneering of these ancestors that developed this virgin land into a beautiful country and posterity gives its proper meed of praise to them!

(“The great iron horse they hadn’t known;
Knew little of steam or its power;
Nor dreamed that the work of a day
could be done,
By machinery in less than an hour”

Excerpt: Martin Rice, An Old Settlers talk, 1880. Hist. of Cass Co., Mo. Allen Glenn. 1917. 10pp. of verses).

The words of Mr. Charles Bolton expresses one's sentiment on research, he says: "To weave together the faded dates of the old manuscripts with the traditions that have survived sleeping generations, until joys and tears, the quaint speech and early poetry stands out upon the tapestry in the semblance of a living man - this gives pleasure which he only who has stood at the loom can feel and understand." (Mr. Bolton's or Putnam's Monthly Hist. Mag. Jan. Dec. 1895, p. 117. The Mag. closed 1917). (He was b. 1867 Cleveland, O., d. 1948, Mass. Poet, author, genealogy).

Interest was increased with every step of progress, and in doing the research other historical facts were brought to light.

Our Country was founded and developed through those hardy ancestors who were courageous; who were noted for their energy and industrious fortitude. They had initiative, leadership, perseverance and ambition as well as loyalty, patience and piety. It was the great onward movements of these intrepid early pioneers who kept the events alive as their hearts were full of spirit with love of liberty; thus, the foundation of a mighty nation was made by the first early settlers and by the descendants of these families spreading into about every State of the Union who have aided in its growth.

Joaquin Miller (1841-1913), the American Poet, said about the Pioneers, "We eat your bread to-day."

This question was asked by one "Unknown": "Have you ever considered just how empty this life would be without memories to bridge the past with the present?"

There were many miles traveled - used Rural Route mail cars, etc., to contact people who perhaps had information about old families of home towns; besides the many hours that were spent in Genealogical Libraries across the United States; Libraries; examined the old Parish Books; history books; old newspapers; the old court records; Marriage Bonds; Vital Statistics and the old Cemeteries.

You kindly keep in mind that it is not for us to feel our life is going on to success from using the ancestors names. It is for us to remember their noble deeds, their good characteristics and advance in knowledge and skill which is the greater and more honorable feat.

This lineage record was begun as a hobby and during the period of several years there was a voluminous correspondence, over 2000 letters. There were some who did not reply to the query letter or letters; hence, some data was not gotten. If one Library did not have a certain book needed for data, others were sent letters until found-and Libraries kindly suggested where to write. This was done for checking data and photocopies.

The Compiler acknowledges the many sources and wishes to express a grateful thank you for the courtesies and assistance of the many Libraries; and State Libraries. The Clerks of the many Court Houses in different States. The Postmasters. The Cemeteries. The others who assisted in the different States. And the invaluable aid from the friends and families, too numerous to mention, who have so generously contributed information to the enrichment of this family record. Also, for the permission to use data.

So now, the collected records are to be printed that they may be preserved. Some of the data is put down "as told" as to names and dates about some families; any additional authentic information about any of the data will be appreciated.

This work is a tribute of respect to the memory of those who have gone before us.

The compiling of this record has given me a great deal of pleasure and it is hoped that the information in the record will afford as much to you and the future generations.

THE OLD WORLD - THE NEW WORLD

The ones who were born in the British Isles and came to the New World may not be descendants of the ancient Britons whose history began ca. 55 B.C. when Caesar invaded. 51 B.C. Caesar conquered the Gauls and made the Roman province. It was ca. 43 A.D., when the Romans went to the Isles and remained for years and taught Christianity, which was the first toward civilization. 117 A.D. Hadrian built the wall across from Tyne to Solway Firth.* The Romans left after 426 A.D. Then the Saxons entered 451 A.D., taking over after 813 A.D. *North Sea to Irish Sea, 70 miles.

The pagan Saxons disliked these ancient Britons, who had become Christians and were Romanized, took their land, and without their consent, they were made to go to the edge of Isle. It is likely that the early ones in Wales are from these early Britons and could be from Cornwall and perhaps some from Scotland.

(Descendants of James Welch, King Philip War 1675-76.

By C.B. Welch, 1943). (Editor: Tacoma News Tribune, Tacoma, Wash.).

In 690 A.D. the England name was first used. The seven different kingdoms of Heptarchy united under name of England, the land of Angles, by King Egbert of Wessex, 802-27 A.D., the first ruler defeats the Britons; 827 A.D. to 1017 Anglo-Saxons. (787 A.D. was the first recorded invasions of the Danes, the Sea Kings and Vikings, also, 867, 891, 985 A.D.). Danish Kings 1017 to 1042 A.D.; Saxons again to 1066 A.D.; Normans to 1154 A.D., William I, William the Conqueror; Plantagenets to 1399; House of Lancaster to 1461 A.D.; House of York to 1451 A.D.; Tudor Kings to 1603 A.D.; Stuart Kings to 1649; The Commonwealth, Oliver Cromwell to 1658 A.D.; his son Richard Cromwell Sept. 1658 to May 1659 A.D.; Stuart Kings back to 1714 A.D.; House of Hanover from George I to 1727 A.D.; George II to 1760; George III to 1820 A.D. These rulers and dates show the type of peoples, emigrants, who came at different times to the NEW WORLD. (From English History). (The Standard Dictionary of Facts, H.W. Ruoff, Ed. 1913). (Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, Knightage, Kings of England, 1949).

When the emigrants were leaving England or the Isles, many of the entries stated to "Virginia", which meant the NEW WORLD, any port.

"Headright" was the passage into a section proved by the one who brought the person and for each one he got 50 ac. of land. If the passage is paid for the person he or she became an indentured servant to be for ca. seven years - at end, free, likely given land.

Quit claim was for the land owners, instead of paying with tobacco to the different shipping points regularly, they chose to pay 1s. for each 50 ac. (1000 lbs. tobacco valued ca. 13¹/₃ $ ca. 1730. A Hist. of Madison Co., Va. by Claude L. Yowell, 1926.p.95.)

Meal 30s. per bu. or 10 lbs. Tobacco. Loaf sugar, powder sugar, 1s. 8d. or 2s. 6d. in Tobacco. Butter and Cheese, 3s. or 1 lb. Tobacco. From Virginia Records, Rates of Commodities in Aug. 23, 1623. 1732 in Md. tobacco was made a legal tender: 1d. per lb., corn 20d. per bushel.

There were many NELSON immigrants who came into the Colony without leaving definite family data in the Isle or in the Colony. There were ca. seven JOHN NELSONS who came into the Northern Neck of Virginia, the Tidewater Section, in Carolinas and six JOHN NELSONS in Maryland, some checking show related in England from a common ancestor - and some by the Arms. Some of the same immigrant NELSONS went into the Colony around Boston, Mass., then later farther south, along the Atlantic coast - still in Virginia - the area along the coast and extended miles to the West. (Va., W.Va., part of Penna., Ky., Ohio, Ind., Mich., Ill., Wisc., part of Minn.) (Gleanings of Va. Hist. by W.F.Boogher 1903.p.1.)

The London Company, 1607, or the Virginia Colony, they called the land north, North Virginia, and the Plymouth Colony, Massachusetts, 1620. (...New Amsterdam...on Island of Manhattan in Virginia. From books of that time. Old Virginia and her Neighbors by John Fiske, 1907, p. 254.)

The person was a trespasser to settle south of parallel 45, as this would be dedicated possessions. Sir Thomas Dale, High Marshall of Va. sent Capt. Argall to Acadia, 1613 (the French in Maine, too) who closed the French Colony - who had been there sometime - the Spanish and French were the enemies. To leave Virginia soil meant all of North America to the head men. On the return he found the Hollanders on the Hudson river - their flag was taken down - but was raised again after Capt. Argall left. Another settlement, 1614, at Manhattan Island. (pp. 107-8). The Puritans, 1619, were driven from Va. Colony and went to Md. and to New England. (pp. 171-3)(Virginia-History of the People, John E. Cooke. 1883. H.O.Houghton & Co. The Riverside Press Cambridge. 118, 17th St. 1893 Houghton, Mifflin, and Co., Boston)(Am. Commonwealth by H.E.Scudder).

1620 the Pilgrim Fathers were interested from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607. They got consent from the Virginia Co., of London. (The London Co., 12-20-1606 under Capt. Christopher Newport, "Sarah Constant"-100 tons). (1619 "James City" Gen. Assembly). The two Companies 1606 by James I, King of England; 105 to Roanoke. (1H113-14). The Pilgrim Fathers never reached their port as a storm landed them outside of the land of the London Co., still in Va. The London Co., cooperated in 1622 and the Plymouth people could have starved but were saved by the food taken in two ships from Jamestown. (3T229) (See Bradford: The Plymouth Plantation. 1623).(3T228. Jamestown on the James River had the first iron works). (N.E. Hist. & Gene. Reg. Vol. 5, p. 118. On Emigrants for Virginia which went into the Mass. area then). (KY.Reg.Vol. 19, p. 101). (1H202. The Grand Assembly - held at James City 1-2-1632-3. 22 Burgesses for 21 Plantations). At first the land was called Hundreds or Plantations until 1634, then the 21 were formed into the eight shires as of England: as Berkeley Hundred, Martin Hundred 1618, Bermuda Hundred, Smith's Hundred 1617. (History of Colonial Virginia. W.B.Cridlin).

Many important records of papers and books which contained information on the early immigrants have disappeared or were destroyed by fires or fallen into the possession of disinterested persons or destroyed during the war between the States.

(The two Nelsons: Scotch, Celtic; English, earlier Scandinavian. The Irish Nelsons, Ulster, there from Eng. by the London Co., and others, on Plantations. The Scotch migrated into Eng., settled where the earliest Nelsons were. (See Contributions towards a Nelson Genealogy by William Nelson, (N.J.) Paterson, N.J. Hist. Club. 1904. (Some Neilsons of Scotland, Forewords.)).

There were several sources given by Authorities how the name NELSON was derived and its origin in the British Isles. The names were taken from a connection by usage in England as surnames were not used during the early centuries; from baptismal name Nigel, Norman; Scotch from Neil or son of Eleanor, Nell a nickname Nellson. One Neil, earl of Carrick, d. 1256, wife Margaret Stuart. His son John used the name Neilson, got land by royal charter ca. 1314, became a barony the 16th C., they had this for two C. The Danish, Neilson, Neilsen, Nelsen, Nelson. Nelson, Nelzon for Swedish; Dutch, Nelson and Neilsen. Norwegian, Danish as Nilssen, Neilsson, Neilssen, Nilsson.

The ancient records in the British Isles have many forms of the name; Nelson generally used.

While surnames were introduced from Normandy there are records of Saxon surnames before the Norman conquest, 1066.

It was before the Norman Conquest by William the Conqueror, 1066, that the Angles from Schleswig, Denmark, were in the British Isles and settled in the section we know as Yorkshire. This section was first named Evereux by the Romans; after the Norman Conquest it was Ebor; and the final name was Yorkshire. "The peoples of this part of the country were all of Scandinavian descent, and spoke the same language with the Normans themselves." The Saxon never settled here as a different race. "The city of York having been long before that time especially a Danish City, and the chief city in all England." p. 48.

The early history of the first rulers tells about the ruler Odin and as first King of Scandinavia, ca., B.C. 70. "Thorfin the Dane, whose ancestors ... from Denmark ... ancient Ebor or Yorkshire, prior to the Norman Conquest." (There was an ancient village called juxta Ravensworth, originally "Wessyngton" - the name Washington was derived from the village ca. A.D. 1030-35). Thorfin was Earl of Orkney Isles.

(Families Directly Descended from All The Royal Families in Europe and Mayflower Descendants) (Supplemental Vol. 1,2,3,4, in one book for the two Books above). (One ref.: Am. Coll. Gene. Registry and Heraldry, 1879, Albert Welles, Pres.). (Courtesy of Mr. Oscar A. Rixford, East Highgate, Vermont, 1958).

Some of the early descendants removed to other locations adjoining Yorkshire.

The Nelson families are being checked by researchers who have found that many have won high renown in the British Empire as well as in America, in war and in peace.

There are many NELSONS who can claim relationship to; Robert II (King of Scotland); Princess Catherine Stuart; Sir David Lindsay; James IV (King of Scotland); Edward III (King of England), founded Westminster Abbey; Prince John the Gaunt; Leofric, King of Leicester whose wife was Lady Godiva who rode the streets of 11th century Coventry - without clothes, to beg mercy for her heavily taxed citizens; the heroine of Tennyson's poem; Algar, King of East Saxon in 1053 and many barons and earls of noble birth. (Excerpts: NELSONS by K.W. Clendenin, The Parkersburg News, Parkersburg, W. Va. Apr. 1957).

Also, Robert III; King Robert Bruce, b. 1274, d. at Cardross Castle, 6-7-1329, the Young line.

Thomas Nelson of Elsett Hall, Co., York, was granted the Coat of Arms by Sir R. St. George, Norroy in 1607. (The Genealogist, New Series. Vol. XXII, p. 263. Ed. by H.W.F. Harwood, London. 1905-6).

Motto: Memor et fidelis. Mindful and Watchful. Add. MS. 14, 295. Robert Nelson of Aldeburgh, in Suffolk, whose ancestors came from Yorkshire, the same Arms.

Many different families had the same Coat of Arms. The families living within a radius of 25 mi. in the Isles were related; different from the early days in the New World as the other families were living where many relations were and all were moving to new settlements.

The Coat of Arms (picture) was the Yorkshire and Plymouth, England Nelson families. (Ancestors of Lord Horatio Nelson (1758-1809) and others). The description is: Per Pale argent and sable, a chevron between three Fleur de lis counterchanged. This means the shield is divided with a chevron alternating halves colored black and silver. Crest: a Fleur de lis per pale argent and sable. Motto: Palman qui meruit ferat. Let him who merits bear the palm. Stow MS. 677. (Burke's Peerage 1949, pp. 1472-73-74) (1905 p. 1180). The chevron was used to identify the man enclosed in the armor. The Fleur de lis denoted association with France through lineage or service to the country. The Arms is given to ones of military service who defended cities or who have supported their sovereigns. The Coat of Arms used by different relation may vary as the Latin Motto varies; and the Crest. (See: The Curio p. 205. 1884) (33V188) (Mag. of Am. History, 1881. Vol. 7, p. 57: Arms).

There were 34 wills, etc., checked at Court of Carlisle, years ago by Mr. L. Withington, which began with the will of George Nelson Penrith, Co., Cumberland; Eng., 1556. This will and most of the other data did not seem to be connected with the ancestors of the Yorktown Nelsons, Virginia. (Arms about the same). Not any of the Nelsons of Penrith were owners of large tracts of land. The ancestors of the known Hugh Nelson b. ca. 1587, who was, perhaps, connected with the common ancestor of Yorkshire, Eng. There were 580 Nelsons in the Rev. for the Colonies: more than 40 from Va. and likely they were ancestors of many in West Va. as taken from Va. And 183 Nelsons in U.S.M. Corps. W.W.I. There are 17 States with towns of NELSON and 5 States with NELSONVILLE. There are numerous counties, streets, etc., NELSON. Some yrs. ago a check was taken and found the Episc., 1st, Pres. and Baptist 2nd. on religion.

Thomas Nelson went into Mass. 1638, in "Bevis", and named Rowley, 1639, from Rowley Parish, Yorkshire, Eng. He had more capital than the others. He, with Rev. Ezekiel Rogers, brought the twenty families to the New World for religious freedom. Ezekiel Rogers was the rector and brought with him the records prior to 1638, that section of the residents there is gone, unless the Book was put away; forgotten; it might be found sometime. He was suspended from the church because he would not conform.

The Rowley church stands in Yorkshire, Eng., and used. It was built 902 years ago, 1954. (Mr. Chas. E. Nelson, Midland, Mich. was there 1952, one of the desc. Dr. John F. "Yes, I am sure our line is related to that of Horatio Nelson of England," "...our family originally came from Denmark to Northern Scotland and through Eng. to U.S.A."

Excerpts from letter by late Charles Q. Nelson, Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 16, 1935 to Dr. Narka Nelson, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga.; now in Oxford, Ohio, author of Book: The Western College for Women, 1853-1953. "You spoke of the Coat of Arms. It is the same as the one used by the famous Thomas Nelson, Jr. ancestry of Virginia. I presume you will also be surprised to learn that there is a connection between our branch of the Nelson Clan of Scotland and that of the family. I have a letter to bear proof of this aside from the fact that both families had their origin in Denmark and entered the British Isles during the Norman Conquest of Great Britian in 1066 A.D. Admiral Lord Nelson is also another of the original family and such is genealogy when one researches into the remote past.

"Perhaps you already know the Mathew family has quite a historical background. I have this line of ancestry back to the fifth century. It originated in Wales and they were very prominent in Wales, Eng. and Ireland, and in the American History from the start they were equally prominent. Samuel Mathew was sent to Va. by James I to "make diligent inquiry into the present state of the colony" in 1622. (before 1618. O.N.G.). And from that date they figured in the formation of the government. Col. Sampson Mathew was a delegate to the first Continental Congress. O, I could go on indefinitely telling of our family's part in the making of these United States; and it continues to this very day." (John¹Nelson & w. _____, Thomas²Nelson & Rebecca Guthrie of Scotland, Alexander³Nelson, b. 1-14-1749 Armagh Co., Ireland; m. 1-29-1784, Va., d. 1-2-1834, Va. The Colonies in America, the early years, used the old Calendar, same as the English. The double dating was used up to 1752. When Eng. adopted the Gregorian Calendar in 1753, it became the calendar. With the old Calendar the legal year began March 25, Lady Day, instead of Jan. 1. (1H393)(4V341). The new one, reformed of Pope Gregory XIII, made 1752. The Julius Ceaser made 45 years before Christ. The Julian Calendar or Old Style as 1631/2. Two years generally named for Jan., Feb., March, as 5 January 1718/19, to March 25, but not always. (Later, when the New Year was used, in checking old data, the date of the year first given was used, as the 1718, sometimes the other year was taken, as records were found one year, another place the other year date used). As old marriage records error occurred on account of the Calendar system. The dates often given in Parish Books were put down as the day the Minister places it in the Book. Distances often kept the records different for the Marriages and Births. In research work this can be found which sometimes makes the record confusing on dates. The first four Presidents of the United States had birthdays on different days as children and another date in maturity.

In WILLS terms used as "Cousin" will frequently be found to mean nephew or niece. "Father-in-law" or "Mother-in-law" often means stepfather or stepmother, sometimes they are referred to as "Father" or "mother". Son-in-law often means natural son - one out of wedlock. The signature of a mark does not always mean illiteracy. The same names are often spelled different ways-sometimes spelled as it sounds to the Clerk, families drop letters, etc.

The Kings of Eng. claimed the land where the new sections were being made into settlements. The ones who were given large tracts of land were called Proprietors, it was not lived upon by them but was to be passed on into other tracts for homesteads - patents. These grants were from the King Charles, First; King Charles, Second and King James, in Northern Virginia.

In 1671 Charles II had granted to Earl of St. Albans, Lord Berkeley and later Lord Culpeper a patent for the Northern Neck, a region between the Rappahannock and the Potomac rivers, which Lord Culpeper afterwards purchased and the right was confirmed to him by letters patent from James II in 1685. (Also in Mass. Historical Soc. Coll. Vol V. in account of the Present State and Government of Va. - the early history).

The old Court House records show that Lord Fairfax owned a vast amount of land. At the death of Lord Culpeper his heir, a dau. had married Lord Fairfax, thus he became the proprietor or land owner of the large area, known as the "Northern Neck of Virginia." (History of Madison Co., Va. C.L. Yowell).

Culpeper Co., became a Co., from Orange in 1748, which was Culpeper, Madison and Rappahannock. Culpeper Co., was in the "Northern Neck" of Va, The County seat was Fairfax, 27 ac. originally owned by Robert Coleman, became a town, 14th day of April 1759. William Green, Philip Slaughter, Nathaniel Pendleton and William Willmams laid off the Fairfax and lot 24 was for the C.H. It was years later that it became Culpeper, Jan. 8, 1870, for Lord Culpeper.

An interesting fact is that the first surveyor of the County was George Washington, seventeen years of age - for three years. In the Culpeper C.H. is the record of July 20, 1749. "George Washington, gentleman, produced a commission from the president of William & Mary College, appointed him Surveyor of this County, which was received, and thereupon took the usual oath of his Majesty's person and government; and took and subscribed the adjuration oath and test, and took oath of Surveyor according to law." (St. Mark's Parish by Rev. Philip Slaughter). (Historical Coll. of Va. by Henry Howe. 1849). (Hist. of Madison Co., Va. by C. L. Yowell). Culpeper 20X18 mi. in 1840 had 4933 whites, 6069 slaves.

The original signed protest against the Stamp Act, Oct. 21, 1765, is in Culpeper C H., Deed Book E, pp. 138-140: "the Honorable Francis Fauquier, Esquire ... Commander of the Colony ... and Dominion of Virginia." Many served under Gen. Washington at Valley Forge. The Culpeper Minute Men were formed under an oak at "Catalpa Farm", then, Maj. Philip Claytons, now, John W. Yowells, in 1776 service. The Culpeper Minute Men were reorganized under the same oak tree. The Northern and Southern Armies were in and around Culpeper, officers as Gen. Lee, Grant, Jackson, Hill, Stuart, Pope, Meade and others were there. Some officers were quartered in homes - some homes were used as hospitals. (It is told that the Union Flag was hung over doors, one dau. refused to go under the flag - so jumped out the window and went to stay with her sister). The Cavalry battle, Brandy Station, June 1863, Gen. Lee viewed and saw his son "Rooney" wounded. He was taken to the Hill home. Oct. 11 was a battle in the streets of Culpeper, over 1000 on each side were killed. About 2000 soldiers are bur. in Culpeper Fairview and National Cemeteries. The National Cemetery now (1959) has 14000 graves, 912 unknown. (See Bicentennial Edition: Culpeper Star-Exponent, 1959). The home George Washington lived in while he was surveying Fairfax is standing, over 200 years ago.

Stafford County extended to the Blue Ridge Mountains, 24 mi. width, S. and W. of the Potomac river. The Co., formed in 1664 from Westmoreland. Richmond and Essex were formed in 1692 when Old Rappahannock became extinct. King George in 1721 from Richmond. Prince William in 1731 from Stafford and King George. Fauquier Co., was formed in 1759 from Prince William. In checking counties that have been divided several times or dropped, one can see how very difficult it is to trace the early families, as well as keep in mind that there are many missing records.

John¹Washington and George⁴Mason lived in Stafford Co. The George⁴Mason was the one who was responsible for the fifth amendment in the BILL of RIGHTS, "No person shall be compelled ... to be a witness against himself." He is bur. there and as has been said that he must turn restlessly in the grave as a founding father. This has become a shield in investigations; and he drafted the Virginia Constitution. His "Gunston Hall" home, built ca. 1750, near Mt. Vernon, is now open to the public, since April 1952. (Geo.¹Mason (1651 Va. d. 1686), Geo.²M.; Geo.³M. m. 1721 Anne Thomson (Stevens), Col. Geo.⁴Mason (1725-1792). Dumfries was the trading place, from here used by George Washington to get to Annapolis, Md. by water. This was on the s. side of the Rappahannock river, near the Potomac river.

The Aquia Church, Stafford Co., Va. OVERWHARTON PARISH was formed before 1680, the first church was destroyed by fire in 1751; rebuilt in 1757. The Communion silver given by Eng. to the Parish in 1739, was buried during two wars - 1776, 1812. It has been gone and has been in the families of person or persons who took it from the church during the war between the States. The Communion silver was returned Sept. 1953 to the Church. In 1741 Rev. John Moncure and w. Ann Brown were there.

Overwharton Parish was formerly known as Potomac Parish. Hamilton Parish from Overwharton Parish in 1730. Nov. 1, 1732 Hamilton Parish, n. of Occoquan creek, became Truro Parish and the part of Hanover Parish, King George Co., which was in Prince William Co., was then added to Hamilton Parish; 1742 Truro Parish was placed in Fauquier Co. It was later that the Hamilton Parish became part of Fauquier, and was in Prince William Co. County was named for William Augustus, Duke of Cumberland, a son of King George II. (Also Cumberland Co.). (A Hornbook of Virginia History by J R V Daniel. 1949).

Dettingen formed from Hamilton, Elk Run and Turkey Run churches. Elk Run church situated about 6½ mi. below the "Parsonage" on the Falmouth-Winchester road, and was about 15 mi. below Fauquier C.H. on the road to Fredericksburg, close to Bristersburg upon a small stream from which it took its name. Leeds Parish, Fauquier Co., 1770; taken from Prince William Co., 1769. (Fauquier Co., Hist. Bulle., p. 268). Members of first vestry of Leeds: John O'Bannon, Samuel Grigsby, Thomas Marshall, John Moffett. (Fauquier During Proprietorship by Groome, p. 149).

Some of the German emigrants who left for reasons of persecution, wars and religion, were interested from reports heard about the New World, a storm took their vessel south of the Pennsylvania border to the Va.

shore. It seems some had their passage paid by Gov. Spotswood, then they were with him in the iron mines 1717 to 1725. The others there were brought in by Gov. Spotswood in 1714. It was not satisfactory to the first group and they removed to their own settlement. They did live on Rapidan river at Germanna Ford, then the n.e. corner of now Orange Co. The Germans made wines for the Gov. Spotswoods. (Old Va. by John Fiske, Vol. 7. p. 448). (The Gov. would not sell land to them. (11V231-32-33)).

The Pendleton name with Stark data reminded the compiler about "The Knights of the Golden Horseshoe." Edward Pendleton was one, the souvenir had been handed down, one of the Stark family said that it should be with them. The Horseshoe had an inscription which meant: Thus it is a pleasure to cross the mountains. Gov. Spotswood was a promoter, he wanted to encourage the opening of the country, he thought from what he had learned that to cross the Blue Ridge and by three days he would be at Lake Erie. In 1716 he took the crowd of gentlemen, settlers, with Indians and the servants with food, different wines and camping articles on horses. They left about 80 mi. s.w. of Harper's Ferry. This same section, years later, is mentioned: "The exploits of Stonewall Jackson in 1862 have clothed the region with undying fame." (Old Va. and her Neighbors by John Fiske. 1897. Vol. II, pp. 385-6). A toast was given at top of the highest Mt. and named Mt. George for the King. They must have been a very jolly crowd in that unknown wilderness. There was not anything developed from the trip until years later when Joist Hite had 40,000 ac. for the new settlers, 1732. (Read Scribner's Popular History of the U S Bryant, Guy, Brooks. Vol. III. Scribner's Armstrong & Co. 1876, Chas. Scribner's & Sons - 1898, pp. 73, 74, for a very colorful description of The Golden Horseshoe Trip). (St. Mark's Parish, Rev. Slaughter, The Diary of John Fountaine of Golden Horseshoe). (Campbell's History of Va. 1859, Ch. LI.). They had ca. 50 persons, gone ca. 6 wks., ca. 219 mi. one way; an abundant supply of provisions and an unusual variety of liquors. The bottle bur. contained a note stating that the land was taken for King George the first of England. (Hist of Madison Co., Va. C L Yowell). (30V171). (4W(2)123). (John Lewis, Irish, (w. Scotch, and ch.) is given credit for founding Staunton, Va., said to be the oldest town in the Shenandoah Valley, Va.). (A Hornbook of Va. History. p. 31)

The Germans moved n. ca. 20 mi. and located in Stafford Co., 1721. That section fell into Prince William Co., 1731, in 1759 to Fauquier Co. Their new home, Germantown, was on Licking Run, ca. 8 mi. s. of present Warrenton Midland Station, on the S.R.R.

Some of the early German names have become part of the names connected with the descendants of Virginia's early families as: John Cuntz (Coons); John Camper (Kemper); Peter Heide (HITT); John Fitchbock (Fishback); Jacob Holtzclow (Holtzclaw); John Jost Merdten (Martin); Henry Müller (Miller); Henrich Baechter (Baker); Justus Heid or Heydt (Joist Hite); 1731 Peter Stephen was with the Joist Hite crowd, as Stephen is English he could have been passing the same way. Stephensburg, then Stephens City was founded by him. (The ancestor of the Missouri Stephens). Later when Stevensburg was the choice of Lord Fairfax for seat of Justice a "bought" vote made Winchester the place. It is said that Lord Fairfax did not speak to the person again - (In Cassel, p. 4). (A History of the Valley of Va. Samuel Kercheval, Winchester. 1833, p. 239 vote "sold" against Lord Fairfax; also, p. 179, 3rd Ed. 1902). (Winchester founded by Col. James Wood, of Winchester, Eng. 1744. Hornbook p. 32). There was a Henry Nelson who was to build a church at Millerstadt then Woodstock, Luthern, after 1725. (Cassel, p. 6). ((41V41) - 1714 Colony of Va., Germanna. each name is taken and tells about them).

Orange Co., was once all portion of Va. w. of the Blue Ridge, afterwards Augusta, by Atkinson. At one time Augusta Co., Va. took in W. Va., Tenn., Ky., O., and around Bristol (now in Va. & Tenn). The State W. Va. was then west of Va., it was Fincastle. This large county, in 1772, took in the land to Mississippi river and all which is now Ky. It was changed Dec. 1776 by making a part as Ky. Co., Va., then in 1780 made into the three counties: Fayette, Jefferson, Lincoln. (Mrs. Ardery, Ky., Records p. 71). (N.E.H. & Gene. Register. Bound for Va.). (Ky. History. R.H. Collins Vol. 2).

Bourbon Co., was made; then out of Bourbon and Fayette for Clark Co., then Montgomery Co., 1795 out of Clark Co. (Hist. of Montgomery Co., Ky.).

In this part, then Va., is where records were found about Thomas Nelson, Sr. & w. Rachel Grigsby in Bath

Co., out of Montgomery Co. And about Mrs. Mary Young Nelson w. of John Nelson, Jr. and some of the ch; other related families. In this section, miles s. of the Ohio river, people were the greatest number from Va., others came in from Md., N.C., Penn. They had over 50% slaves..

The Perry Co., Ky. section goes back to 1772; in 1785 it became part of Fayette, Bourbon; Mason Co. in 1788, still in Va. Perry Co., part of Clark & Montgomery. It was named for Oliver Hazard Perry, naval battle hero 1812 and the town Hazard; an independent Co., 1820. The KENTUCKY County, in 1780, was set aside for REV. SOLDIERS Land Grants. The three counties were made. (Perry Co., Ky. Hist. by Emma Talbot Johnson (Hazard Ch. of D.A.R. 1953). Some of the Land Grants: John N. Adair Co., Ky. services 1818 to Edmund, James, Joseph all came to Ky. from Va. John from Pittsylvania, Rockbridge, Mecklenburg Cos. There were 5 Johns from York Co., Va.

Virginia; to get the unexplored section into home lands s. of the Ohio river, offered four hundred ac. to every individual if a cabin would be built, clear the land and raise a crop of corn. To the person this was called a Settlement Right. (p. 122). (On p. 21, - after 1607 North Virginia is New England). Daniel Boone began to explore before 1769, about 1775 he directed the route made of five hundred mi. over which pack-horses and wagons could travel to Booneville, on the Ky. river, near Lexington, this through a private, Col. Henderson and party, land agents at Boonsborough, p. 125 (American Pioneers and Patriots, Daniel Boone by John S.C. Abbott. 1872. Dodd & Mead, 762 Broadway, N.Y.).

That portion of Va. became Ky., June 1, 1792.

In 1784 settlers in an area of Tenn.-N.Car. proclaimed a new State which they named FRANKLIN after Benjamin Franklin. This State lasted only three years, then was cut up between Tenn. and N.Carolina. Franklin 1784; first Assembly 1785; Landon Carter was member of State of Franklin from Sullivan Co., Aug. 1, 1784 chosen Secy; 1785 Speaker of the 1st Senate of Franklin. (7V14). (A book: Lost State of Franklin by Samuel Cole William. 1924. He was Justice of the Supreme Court of Tenn.). Data on land sales in Clarksville, Tenn. which mentioned "lawful North Carolina money". (Washington Co., Tenn. was in the Franklin State). Falls of Ohio, 1783 then, is Louisville, Ky. now.

(Adm. Horatio Nelson, in 1784 visited the West Indies (Barbados). He visited his cousin in Philadelphia, Pa. Wm. Houston, who was a cousin to Robert Nelson in Pa. and Md. ca. 1755). (In Md. Hist. Library, Baltimore, Md.). (The ship "Olive Blossom" found Barbados Island ca. 1627. Eng. When George Washington was 19 years of age he was two mos. in Barbados with his half-bro. The Original OVERWHARTON PARISH BOOK, Stafford Co., Va. is in the State Archives Library, Richmond Va. In the State Library (same bldg) is a copy of the original Book by William F. Boogher, years 1720 to 1760. 1899.

The GENEALOGY of COUNTIES where many of the early ancestors and connections settled shows how they progressed; the New way became the AMERICAN way. There were eight shires from 1634 to 1648. The names and more counties: Accawmack 3, Charles City 18, Charles River 9, Elizabeth City 7, Henrico 11, James City 3, Warick River 2, Warrosquyoake 3. From Northumberland - Indian district Chickacoan 116, with the above 172 co.

Since 1880 only 100 counties in Va.; 9 are in Ky. now: Bourbon, Fayette, Jefferson, Lincoln, Madison, Mercer, Nelson, Woodford; 50 are in West Va. now; 13 have become extinct. Hist. Caroline Co., Va. by Marshall Wingfield, the early cos. pp. 7-11; p. 10 Ill. Co., Va., from Augusta Co., 1778; Illinois 1784; 1818 the 8th State. Jan. 12, 1769, entered services, Samuel Toby, at Trenton, N J

The Tobey name came into Sandwich, Mass. (Plymouth Colony) by Thomas Toby, 1644. He had 6 sons. His son Nathan's² son Seth³ Toby; m. Feb. 5, 1719 to Hannah Weeks. Their dau. Mary⁴ Toby was b. May 7, 1720; a research note from this Thomas Toby line. (John¹ Nelson, Sr. and Mary Toby had a daughter named Hannah, and Hannah was not a Nelson family name). (There were other Tobys into that section). (See TOBY GENEALOGY by Rufus Babcock Tobey & Charles Henry Pope. Boston, 1905).

The Mary Toby who married John¹ Nelson, Sr. could have lived in Maryland; and it is possible that she emigrated into Virginia from the upper coast section, a descendant of the above Thomas Toby or from some other Toby there. (See WILL marked).

Overwharton Parish Register, Stafford Co., has the only early record, the names from the Aquia Church, no doubt a relation of the Mary Toby Nelson who was living there. John Toby and wife Elizabeth, Ch.: Thomas Toby, b. 1751, John Toby, b. 1753, John T. d. 1754, Mary Toby, b. 1755.

Stafford Co., Va. Book O had the will of John Toby, Index only. Book O, p. 215, Inv. of John Toby (Nov. 15, 1751) (Feb. 17, 1752, App.) L24-18-8. L25-1-8. Coller, hammers, 2 bridles -3-. John Toby Est. App. Inv. Book O, p. 328, Mch. 14, 1752, Apr. 12.

There was a John Toby, 1730, in Stafford Co., Va. Could be the above John Toby. (John Mercer's Ledger & Travel. 1725-1762. #23693, p. 60. States Archives Library, Richmond Va.).

(There was a John Nelson importation proved 14 Oct. 1699, Old Book York Co., Virginia, Book 11, p. 170, (also p. 219). The Book is in State Archives Library, Richmond, Va.).

It is likely that those early Nelsons came from around Yorkshire and descended from the ancient lineage. Some came in by Barbados Isle, Maryland, Va., or from the New England section as Nelsons and others did migrate down the coast to settle and enter into the development of the virgin country. As tradition that our John Nelson, Sr., and his wife Mary Toby could have come in and settled in Stafford Co., Va.

The "tradition" of the JOHN¹NELSON, Sr. 1740 Stafford Co., Va. is that he and Thomas Nelson (1738-1789), Signer of the Dec. of Independence were related, could not be descended as John Nelson, Sr. b. 1719 or earlier. The "tradition" of Ira Thornton Nelson's line is that the John Nelson, Sr. is related to Horatio Nelson. And, also, with line from John Nelson, Jr., s. of John Nelson, Sr., is that he was related to Horatio Nelson* (1758-1805), his ancestors. - also related to the Thomas Nelson, Signer of Dec. of Independence. *(Some said a bro. to Horatio Nelson, couldn't be, dates).

JOHN NELSON, SR. of Stafford Co., Virginia was from the old line of British Isle NELSONS. He and the many other NELSONS from the same line of the ancient lineage and of common ancestry aided in the progress of the nation.

Research has been done by the compiler to discover indisputable evidence, which has not been found, of the parents of JOHN NELSON, Sr. b. ca. 1719 or earlier.

Alex Carrel, the great scientist, said that the human race is carried on the backs of a few heroes, that is, through the ones who were outstanding as they kept pushing ahead.

Northern Neck Grants from Lord Fairfax. Book F. p. 241. 1742-1745, Richmond, Va., State Archives Library. John Nelson of Prince William Co., Va. 131 ac. of land in the County of Stafford survey Geo. Byrn Bodering on Jos. Wood land near head of Negro Run 23 May 1746. . . in the nineteenth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second &c. "Fee one shilling sterling money for every fifty ac. of Land," "County of Prince William, blacksmith, a certain tract of waste & ungranted Land in County of Stafford" to a track of Joseph Woods "full third part of all lead, copper, Tin, Coals, Iron mines & Iron ore that shall be found there on." (To County, in all deeds then. There had been an Iron mine in Stafford Co., Va.).

A blacksmith was a necessity as everything used made of iron for the home had to be made and repaired and anything used on the home place. All of those early settlers had to have blacksmith work done either by some one of the family or by the owner. James²Withers left his blacksmith tools to his youngest son Keene.

The m. record of Hannah Nelson to Thomas James is not in the Overwharton Parish Reg., could have been in the Dentingan Parish Reg. which was in Prince William Co., and this was destroyed and Rev. S.H. Templeman suggested that there could be other children of John¹Nelson, Sr: & Mary Toby which were placed in the Dentingan Reg. that was formed in Prince William Co., where the John¹Nelson, Sr. lived. It would seem that as not any other children were mentioned in the will, Mch. 22, 1791, of John¹Nelson, Sr. other than the children known and given, not any others. There could have been ch. who d., did not leave heirs. He d. before 12-26-1791.

Excerpts from Rev. Samuel H. Templeman data: The farm that John owned was on the headwaters of Aquia Creek just above Tackett's Mill, but in Fauquier. It is not over three miles from the mill as the crow flies and Thackett's Mill is in Stafford. When Fauquier was cut off from Prince William, the Nelson farm was about two mi. from the line of Prince William but in Fauquier. So it is in a corner of Fauquier close to Stafford and Prince William. The nearest village that would help you locate it on the map is Bristersburg. I have visited the farm. It is a good one. The house is gone and so is the blacksmith shop, but it is easy to trace the foundation and to pick up clinkers at the site of the blacksmith shop. Close by is a beautiful grove where John and Mary rest with some of their children John Jr. and William especially. The graves are not marked. Mary lived on the farm and paid taxes until 1815, when she died. At the Court held August 3, 1815 a suit was brought to divide the estate. ... some heirs out of state. All ... living except Hannah James. Mary Young Nelson was living in Co. 1815; she was out of state 1818 when settled - Court decreed she might send some one to collect her portion. (She d. in Ky. see her WILL).

There is a Toby Crest and Coat of Arms in England. ... Toby not Tobey.

Henry Nelson was mentioned as might be the father of John¹Nelson, Sr. not knowing which John of Stafford and Fauquier got some land in Shenandoah Valley. (Rev. Templeman had not checked and suggested to do so). The record shows that Sarah was on the deed, so it was John Nelson, Jr. of *Elk Run whose wife was Sarah Whitson, the s. of Henry Nelson. *Their farm was ca. 5 mi. from John¹Nelson, Sr.

B. Charles⁴ Nelson, b. Prince William Co., Va., 5-25-
1833, d. 9-16-1915, Ft. Scott, Kansas. He went to Ft.
Scott in 1869. In 1881 he became a director and vice-president of the old Bank of Fort Scott, and from that time until his death he continued as a Banker, never permitting any outside business affairs to draw him away from his life work. In 1894 he was in the organization of the Public Library and on 2-13-1908 became president of the board of directors - until death.

"I met Mr. Nelson in the early 90's and felt captivated by his charming personality. ... as his character unfolded more and more it revealed new excellencies which lifted him out of the mass and marked him as a type of our best citizenship. It was not any particular gift that attracted friends to him, but rather a combination of accomplishments, which became irresistible as acquaintanceship grew into admiration and admiration ripened into friendship and love.

"...., not only this Library board, but the city of Fort Scott as well, loses one of its most valuable men.

"One of the chief characteristics of the daily life of Charles Nelson was his invariable politeness, courtesy and cheerfulness." (Excerpts from "In Memoriam" R.C.)

(Alexander Chancellor changed his name to the Chancellor A.)

He entered the war as Captain, under Gen. Beauregard from Dumfries May 1861. March 1862 his company joined the 49th Virginia Reg., under Col. William Smith. "We have ... by request, an enumeration of the principal battles in which he participates-viz: "I was in the battles of Yorktown, Williamsburg, Seven Pines, the battles in the Valley of Va. under Gen. Stonewall Jackson, all the battles around Richmond during the seven days fighting, including Malvern Hill, the battles of Cedar Mountain, Rapidan, Bristow Station, both battles of Manassas, then Ox Hill, Harper's Ferry, Antietam, both battles of Fredericksburg, at Winchester and at Gettysburg where I was wounded and captured on the 4th of July 1863. I was also wounded at Seven Pines and Fredericksburg." When he was shot down at Gettysburg, left for dead; afterwards taken by Northern forces who sent him to Fort McHenry, Fort Delaware and Johnson's Island off Sandusky, in Lake Erie. In Mar.

1865, sent South to be exchanged; he reported to Gen. Lee at Richmond, in a short time surrender occurred. He had business in Washington, D.C. and found the unrest there; he was told to go southward from the north end of the Long Bridge. He remained for the night at Jackson's Hotel, Alexandria, Va. The next morning the soldiers were coming in the hotel as Jackson had shot Ellsworth for trying to take down the Virginia flag; Jackson was killed. Captain Nelson got away by hiring an engineer to take him in his locomotive.

Capt. Nelson belongs to the old stock of Virginians who had their plantations and dependents who served and brought forth a living for themselves and their owners. The war was over. He returned to his wife and children and the ruins of his plantation. The valuable slaves - once offered $7700. for many of them, to his mother and to him - had gone N. over the river to freedom. Capt. Nelson began the plantation work. As his uncles had removed to Mo. in earlier years, and his bro-in-law, Charles⁴ Nelson to Fort Scott, Kns. and all became successful; he, w. and 3 ch. in 1871, went to Fort Scott, Kns. ... mercantile business. In his declining years he had every comfort of life. All through life he had that greatest quality of mankind, consideration of others. (Excerpts from Confederate Veteran Obituary).

The Culpeper Minute Men. Patrick Henry was at the Virginia Convention and his famous speech ended: "Give me Liberty or give me death", 3-20-1775. As the Va. Gov. Lord Dunmore, removed the powder from the old magazine in Williamsburg, Patrick Henry as Commander of the State Militia, asked for volunteers. There were 150 men from Culpeper, 100 from Orange, 100 from Fauquier. (Col. Lawrence Taliaferro, Orange; Lt. Col. Edward Stevens, Culpeper; Major Thomas Marshall (father of Chief Justice M.), Fauquier. The flag had the Snake, "Liberty or Death" "Don't tread on me" "Culpeper Minute Men".

The first camp was ca. ½mi. w. of Fairfax (later became Culpeper). Their uniforms were: a green shirt had "Liberty or Death" across the front, buck tails on the hats, light ax and knives in belts. The people they passed on their way to Williamsburg were shocked with fear when they saw the savage looking group. Some of the men went on to Great Bridge, Lt. John Marshall was one. This was the place where the first battle of the Rev. in Va. and were victorious, 12-9-1775. (Historical Coll. of Virginia. 1849. By Henry Howe, pp. 237-39; Abjuration of oath p. 237). Book 37, p. 383, Fauquier Co., Va. "I John Nelson of the county of Fauquier, Va. administrator of the estate of Joseph Nelson, deceased, of Fauquier do appoint my son, Thomas W. Nelson of Cooper County, State of Missouri, my true and lawful attorney in fact as administrator of the estate of Joseph Nelson, deceased."
In this document he mentions his slaves, said to be in possession of Ira T. Nelson, late of Fauquier County, but now of the State of Missouri. This record is signed by John Nelson. The date is 27th November 1837. (Joseph Nelson, Sr. d. 10-6-1837).

There is an old Nelson Cemetary on the Tom Courtney place on the Waterloo Road not far from Cliff Mills. Here, it is believed, Joseph Nelson is buried; only plain sandstones at each grave. (Such stones were lettered at the graveside. Time erodes most of the letters). Deed records state that Joseph Nelson owned land adjoining the Moffett place and the old house (Moffett) still stands on the adjoining farm to Tom Courtney. Carters Run Church is about one mile from the fork where you turn to the right on the Waterloo Road going to the Tom Courtney Place. (Rev. S.H. Templeman told about this burial place). (The compiler has been there twice).

The one "that Jackson was sitting on at first Manassas when the statement was made, "Look at Jackson and his Virginians standing like a stone wall!"

(Gen. Jackson has been spoken of as the only one who saw victory ahead - troops came - but the order to carry out his view of the fighting never came.)

And it was, also, from Little Sorrel's back that Gen. Jackson was mortally wounded, 1863, at Chancellorsville. Little Sorrel's remains are now at the Preston Library Museum at Virginia Military Institute, complete with Jackson's saddle, brought from Battle Abbey in Richmond in 1949. (J.S.M.).

When mounting Little Sorrel the bones were removed and the skeleton was made which was placed in a Pittsburgh Museum. (100 Years at V.M.I. Col. W. Couper, Garrett and Massie. 1938. Vol. III, p. 371).

He became a notorious rascal, did as he pleased. His skill in letting down draw-bars with his teeth was amazing. In the same way he could take rails off a fence until it was low enough for him to jump. Worse still, he learned how to remove the peg from a stable-door hasp and daily, unless watched, he would go to the stable release all the other horses and then lead them, one behind another into pleasant pastures. C. Capt James O.⁴ Nelson, Sr. d. at 2 O'clock on Sunday afternoon, aged 59 years, 7 mo. and 10 days. He had been in declining health for some time, but for several weeks previous to his death he had been able to ride out. Just before his death he said to his faithful wife, "All your remedies seem in vain. Oh, my family; my dear little boys, what will become of you?" Then he said, "Glory to the Lamb on high" and died without a groan or struggle. In 1836 he came west from Fauquier County, Virginia. In 1855 he united with the Baptist church, "and seldom was his seat vacant at the house of God when the people met there for worship." Funeral services by Rev. Wm. Robertson, and his body laid to rest in the family graveyard on the home place, "Fairview". He was known as a model farmer and his farm was one of the neatest and best-kept in all the county. He was also gifted as a woodworkman, blacksmith, millwright, miller. After settling the first farm which he and his wife lived on after coming to Mo., he purchased another and better farm about one mile further south.

Mary E. (Hirst) Nelson d., aged 82 years, 3 mo. and 20 days, death resulting from 'grippe, on Christmas Day. Her father came from England at an early day and settled in Pennsylvania. Her mother died when she was 12 years of age, leaving six ch. to know the loss of a devoted mother. She and her little sister, Rebecca Ann, then two years, were taken to Loudoun Co., Va. about 50 miles, to make their home with an uncle. Soon after this their father was m. to Mrs. Hitch, and the two ch. returned. The two families lived together until the dau. Mary reached her eighteenth year, when she m. James O. Nelson, settling in Fauquier Co., Va.

On Sept. 12, 1836, they with other relatives, (James M. Nelson, George W. Nelson - and Thomas W. Nelson was the one who came first. O.N.G.) started for Missouri, making the trip, which was eight weeks in wagons. They crossed the Mississippi river at St. Louis, which was a very small village at that time. (It is possible that Ira Thornton Nelson was with them, his date for leaving Va. was Sept. 20, 1836, he settled north of St. Louis, more about him later, O.N.G.)

James O. Nelson, Sr. and family, directly to Cooper Co. where Thomas W. Nelson was living.

There was not a house nor fence nor any evidence of civilization to be seen. Deer galloped about and there was nothing about the soil to indicate its hidden richness.

Mrs. Nelson professed religion and united with the Baptist, in which denomination she lived until the day of her death, a most faithful and devoted member; the Concord church, one of the oldest and most influential in Cooper County. In both mind and heart Mrs. Nelson was a remarkable woman. She committed many of her thoughts in writing and kept a diary during many years. In bearing she was dignified, reserved in manner, and always neat in dress.

Ann Mason was a dau. of Gen Armistead Mason, who, while a member of Congress, was killed in a duel by a man named Carter. Thomas Hirst and Ann Mason were married 4-6-1798. Had: Thompson M. Hirst 2-6-1800; John T. Hirst, 7-26-1803; Albert G. Hirst, 4-6-1806; Mary E. Hirst, 9-5-1809; Thomas A. Hirst, 5-27-1811; Augustine G. Hirst, 9-13-1814; Rebecca A. Hirst, 9-29-1819.

Tutt; a teacher for years in Sunday School and an active worker and served in every good cause. She was a good housekeeper and was most successful in poultry raising as well as butter making. She d. 6-6-1932.

j. Thomas Alpheus⁵Nelson & Sarah Ann Tucker m. 12-24-1868 (Christmas Eve), Rev. B.G. Tutt, at her home; they lived there until 4-6-1876. The new home was called "Eminence", two mi. east of Bunceton, adjoining old Tucker home on south. They paid $20.00 ac. entirely unimproved. An ox team was used to haul the rails from the Moniteau, the fence built one of the best in the county.

(A Missouri farmer 75 yrs. ago was locally famous for his rail fences. He was critically artistic as a builder of a Cathedral. One of his sons, ex-congressman, W.L.

Nelson, who runs the old home farm, learned the art from him and he maintains what is probably the best modern example of this type of fence in the U.S. ... 12 mi. south of Boonville, Mo.) (The Passing of the Rail Fence. Reprinted from Oct. 2, 1944 of Pathfinder by Permission of Farm Journal, Inc. Philadelphia, Pa. 1958. O.N.G.)

The new home was begun 8-25-1874, dry year, when the smoke house was built. Years later, on 6-26-1892, Sunday P.M., a severe hail storm was very destructive at "Eminence". Miles of fence were leveled. The outside window shutters did not keep hail from breaking the windows on the north and west side, and the roof was ruined. The bark was torn from the small trees, and left only the larger branches with bodies. Crops were destroyed, corn replanted by July 7th. When Louis and others were repairing the fence, the water jug was kept in the drift which had hailstones that were $5\frac{1}{4}$ in around, this was five days after the storm. (Family History by W.L.Nelson).

*Excerpts from a Journal kept by Mary Gay (Wyan) Nelson, 21 yrs., on a trip East from Central Missouri, 1840, with her husband, Thomas Withers Nelson and their dau. Margaret Eliza Nelson, 15 months. (Owned by Mrs. Margaret Curry, Bryn Mawr, Penna., gr. granddaughter).

Monday, March 30th, 1840. Parted with all at home and started for Boonville with the intention of embarking on the first boat after attending the wedding of Sister Margaret and Mr. Russell. Sis was m. on Thurs. 2 Apr. (1840).

Started, Sabbath, about noon arrived safely at St. Louis on Tues. 7th. We remained on the "Thames" in preference to Tavern or Hotel.

April 9th. Engaged passage on the "Lebanon" for Pittsburgh, Pa. Fri. 10th. left at half past one. Margaret does finely.

11th of Apr. Have entered the mouth of the Ohio River and stopped at City of Cairo - founded by the English. Have passed a village, Paducah on the Ky. side - a handsome situation at the mouth of the Tennessee River. Passed Smithland, a good looking town at the mouth of the Cumberland River - in Ky. 12th. A boat from New Orleans, "Detroit", just passed.

13th. Margaret Eliza is quite playful this morning - is running up and down in high spirits. Have come to the canal; two miles long ... landed at Louisville. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Russell went to Gault House for room; and hack for Sister Nancy and two ch. and Mrs. Roberts, they leave us, take a stage for Crab Orchard; will meet with our cos. Henry Owsley.

17th. Arose early. Passed Maysville, Ky. in the night. I viewed the Virginia shore for the first time - the houses generally are old fashioned - though some good brick ones, and really fine farms are to be seen. No one can know with what emotions I looked upon the native land of my husband.

18th. Had a fine promenade on the hurricane deck until the sun went down - the moon rose and the scene was lovely - the waves and spray sparkling as many diamonds.

19th. Awakened at four in the morning as the boat landed at Wheeling (W. Va.); walked to the United States Hotel.

20th. Every one that speaks of little Margaret says what a fine looking boy. Eight of us chartered the stage - gave 125 dollars to take us to Frederick in Maryland; to run all day and lay by night. Our coach is a beautiful one "Cumberland" - road is graded, paved with beaten up rock, from Wheeling to Cumberland, Md.; took the turnpike road on Frederick, Md. We drove 68 mi. the first day and stopped at Uniontown.

21st. We started before it was quite light-passed over rough, broken land-very mountainous-but the scenery around was truly picturesque-mountain after mountain rising in view-the scenery of which so often read accounts, I now reality beheld. We arrived at the little crossing about one o'clock when in the act of turning around the stage to stop at the hotel, we were upset. The stage was broken almost to pieces and sister Margaret was the worst hurt. She was covered with blood. My shoulder was hurt and my arm disabled-and Mr. Russell got a stiff neck. The hotel physician ... Margaret not dangerous. We were compelled to leave the next morning-with great reluctance-but, of course, her husband was with her. We arrived at Hagerstown, the county seat, at one in the night-the first night's travel, put up at hotel. It seemed we hardly gotten to sleep before we had to start again. This is one of the finest improved countries I have seen-the buildings are of the best kind-land here is worth, from 70 to 120 dollars an acre-Frederick is a beautiful city; arrived at 9 o'clock and got breakfast. At a quarter after 10 o'clock we took the cars for Baltimore. Soon left fine lands-in about 4 mi. the country becomes poor. The handsomest building stone I ever saw-many of the stones are quarried and taken to Baltimore. Running 15 miles an hour. Very poor country. We arrived at the suburbs of the city of Baltimore about 3 P.M. The steam engine was then taken from our cars and the cars drawn into the city by 4 very large white horses. After arriving at the depot we were assailed on every side by the incessant cries of different hotel porters. We took a hack to Eauteau House, cor. Eauteau and Baltimore Streets. This is a most magnificent hotel, 5 stories high, containing ... splendidly furnished. The table fairly groaned under the weight of the delicious food.

23rd. They left at a quarter after 9 o'clock and took the cars for Philadelphia; arriving at the suburbs-the engine taken away and 4 very large horses substituted in its place. They went to see a three mast vessel at the warf on the 25th. They were at a large brick boarding house where it was very good regarding Margaret Eliza. After dining they got an omnibus and the niece went with them to explain the city. ... She was told that Margaret was not very good during their absence-would not stay with any one but their scrub woman, so she had to quit her work and nurse her. "She looked similar to big Lucy and I know Margaret thought it was she."

26th. Pratt's Garden the workman there Mr. Nelson asked for a white lilac bloom he said that the gardener was not there and he could not say; Mr. Nelson bravely pulled one telling him it was for a lady and he did not expect the gardener was as large a man as he. "The man laughed and said No-he was no sort of match for him-that the lady herself would be almost a match." The tall lemon tree had the largest lemon on it that she had ever seen-but could not buy it.

27th. They walked to a bonnet store; Margaret put hers on and walked across the shop very large, took them to milliner to trim, played on piano while waiting. They walked to the furniture store where Mr. Nelson had bought a piano. She was there to select music. They went to the cars and took berths for Baltimore. "I found we had run all night and not a great way from Baltimore. Mr. Nelson ...not sleep, noise and bustle, yet I heard none of it ..." They drove to Mrs. Pendleton's boarding house-an old school mate of Mr. Nelson's mother (Cynthia Withers)-had breakfast. The Eauteau House across the street. ...delicious Southern food served to them. When she spoke about the oyster pie she said that was a favorite dish of Mr. Nelson.

31st. She was amused at an old man who filled two large watering pots at the street pump, looks up and down the street to see if any horses or carriages are coming, then sprinkles the street in front of many houses-supposed hired. Bought a handsome lawn dress.

May 1st. Miss Pendleton went with her, she purchased a handsome blue black dress-12yds. -$1 62½ yd.; making $5.50.

May 2nd. Dined with Mrs. Hopkins.

May 3rd. Dressed by inches for the Harrisonian Convention and the Methodist Conference happens here at the same time. The delegates from the different States and spectators are already flocking in, so I have to peep and dress by turns. Every now and then a log cabin passes, the first one drawn by 8 gray horses. Margaret with Mrs. Long's nurse. ... Church-all crowded-found a seat. ...English preacher. ...grew faint and sick; looked in for Mr. Nelson, returned to my room. ...rested. Margaret Eliza was so very good they all thought she must be sick. Afternoon-wrote two letters-one to Mrs. Nelson (Cynthia) and one to my parents.

May 4th. Streets busy. Mr. Arthur Johnson called, brought his daughters Mary and Dolly; asked about Boonville friends. They remained; witnessed the parade. This grand procession consisted of Whig delegates..... Flags were carried, the high wind caused trouble. The eight matched horses came along with the log cabins on four small wheels; cabins decorated with cedar bushes, opossum or raccoon in them. Skins on outside; behind the chimney was a barrel of hard cider. Later joined by Democrats bearing two figures; one of the attending marshalls took it away-a Democrat ruffin had a leaden ball and struck him with so much force caused immediate death. The Whigs tore the figure to atoms and continued three miles out of the city to Canton-race field. There were a great many speeches delivered by some of the most eloquent men of the country. Mr. Clay, Mr. Preston, Mr. Webster and many others spoke. Supposed 25000 in the parade. Walked over to Arthur Johnsons. They saw a church and from there went to Washington Monument and procuring a lamp-ascended the narrow, winding stairs until "we reached the top-from which we had a grand view of the city and surrounding country. Descended-quite fatigued before we reached the bottom. Drank some cold water, soda with a lemon syrup in it which greatly refreshed us. After writing our names and examining sculpture of Washington in his youthful days; we returned and rested on a settee. We visited a ship, always a curiosity to me." She was not well that night and lost the dose of oil. "Mr. Nelson got another and perfumed it with lavender drops which made it more palatable. I feel better, though debilitated in the morning. bed all day-well the next day." It was too late for them to dine with Mr. and Mrs. Gant.

May 5th. Tuesday morning-started early at 9 in the forenoon-taking the cars and arrived in Washington at twelve-being 40 miles. Stopped at Oglesvy's Hotel. The entertainment was truly sumptuous, the table for the ladies ... (Stopped here, except footnote and Newspaper Article). Footnote: From Standard Encyclopedia. Stating that the Whig Convention of 1840 introducing enormous mass meetings and processions, and the emblem and banners that have since been used in the presidential campaigns.

A CHRISTMAS THOUGHT

Life is full of thoughts replete
 You see in faces that you meet
 The Spirit of Christ is here
 At this the Christmas time of year.
 There is apparent-sentiment grand
 The softening Spirit-God seen in man,
 Of all blessings-the greatest of these
 'Tis love expressed-a purpose to please
 Ties welded, a chain is wrought
 By some token or friendly thought
 So living thus this you'll grant
 The ties-the chain, are adamant,
 Happiness comes to he who gives,
 Without which one but poorly lives;
 So let the friendly-cheery ring,
 Voices soft and sweet-let sing,
 Spirit love, rampant instill,
 'Tis His plan, "On earth good will."
 All that's rancor-lay aside,
 Let friendly peace be worldwide;
 Plant the seed, deep-'twill grow
 That we may reap as we sow.
 Now in this verse words a few
 Are old thoughts-tho ever new;
 Best wishes for you with Christmas Cheer,
 Happiness too-thro the coming year.

Major Jesse W. Wooldridge, internationally known author. The "History of Sacramento Valley" in three handsome volumes, profusely illustrated. (Pioneer Hist. Pub. Co., Chicago, Ill. 1931). In the author's introduction: "It is planned that this book shall present historically and accurately the districts and counties ... not only entitle it to a place among histories, but also to a place in the hearts of those who love and are proud of California."

Major Wooldridge's Wartime works, the famous pamphlet, "The Rock of the Marne" and his longer work, "Giants of the Marne." His soldierly prose paints a vivid picture of the action, and under his pen all of the personalities involved, from the Colonel of the Reg. down to its humblest "dog-robber," live again. Both of the books cover the amazing exploits of the 38th Reg., 3rd Div., American Expeditionary Force, the crucial Battle of the Marne. Under Col. Ulysses Grant McAlexander, Jesse Wooldridge, at first captain of "G" Co., later as Major of 1st Battalion, on the banks of the Marne, directly in the path of the main German advance to Paris. It braved the head-on assault of two entire divisions; outnumbered 9 to 1; hemmed in on three sides at times; they halted and threw back the assault, but followed up with an offensive and won. As the Second Battle of the Marne is accepted as turning point of the great war; the stand of the Reg. is equally accepted as the turning point of that battle. These literary works have been accorded the signal honor of being acquired by the famous Huntington Library, San Marino, California, and placed in a special niche which will be his in perpetuity, April 1955. Fauquier Co., Va. Will B. B. 26, p. 396. Nelson, Thomas.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Thomas Nelson of the County of Fauquier and State of Virginia do make this my last will and testament. 1st. I give to my friend Isham Keith in trust for the sole and separate benefit of my daughter Cathrine O. Whitescarver, during her natural life, and after her death to her children, free from all claim and interest of her husband and not in any manner subject to his present or future debts a negro girl, Mary and her future increase, in her possession.

2nd. I give to my son, James R. Nelson, in trust for sole and separate use and benefit of my daughter Elizabeth Grant during her natural life and after her death to her children free from all claims and interests of her husband and in no manner subject to his present or future debts, a negro boy Dick, now in his possession.

3rd I give to my said son, James R. Nelson, in trust for his children of my late son Thomas H. Nelson, a negro woman, Masie, and her three children and the future increase of the female to be held by him, for the benefit, alone and free from the claims of all other persons whatever.

4th I give to my son-in-law, William Carter, three hundred dollar to bear interest from the 1st day of January, 1850 (and subject my estate to the payment of thereof) in trust for the children of my late daughter, Matilda T. Johnson.

5th After satisfying the above special legacies made for the purpose of equalizing the advancements given to my children, I will and devise that the whole of the residue of my property real, personal and mixed, be equally divided between my children and the children of those who are dead, the grandchildren taking the shares of the respective deceased parents, to wit: George A. Nelson, James R. Nelson, Martha Carter, Cathrine O. Whitescarver, Mary A. Word, Elizabeth Grant, the children of my late daughter Matilda T. Johnson, and the children of my late son Thomas H. Nelson, to be held by the same persons in trust subject to the like reservations; and conditions; alike free from the claims of other persons, and in every manner limited and tied up, as the special legacies herein willed to them.

It is my will that my son-in-law, William Carter, hold the share of the children of my deceased daughter Matilda T Johnson in his possession until they become of age to marry.

I appoint my son James R. Nelson, executor of this my last will and testament this 24th day of December, 1850.

26 day of January 1857, Court

A Court held 23rd day of February 1857, ... to be recorded. James R. Nelson the Executor therein named qualified.

"The location of my grandfather Thomas Nelson home. When you come out of Warrenton on the road to Amissville, my old home, about three and a half miles out, you come to a most beautiful home on the left side of the road and the farm where he lived is, and now belongs to rich New Yorker who has restored it wonderfully, as well as added to it. It is a stone house of two stories and I don't think originally had any addition on the back, but now it has two wings attached, and added to it a guest house, formerly a tenant house, which was moved up to join it, and is know as the guest part, altho' I believe Mr. Carhart, the owner, told me they really used it themselves. It was restored by a famous New York Architect, and whoever did the landscaping did a wonderful job. He and Mrs. Carhart were very cordial when we went there and showing us over the house, but he only knew the place as a Holtzclaw Farm. Across the road adjoining was another farm which he owned, and was later owned and occupied by the Templeman Family, Sam's ancestors. The notice of sale, which I have, was just prior to his death and the main farm of about 250 ac. was purchased by the present owner

"Some years ago I was in John Keith's office in Warrenton on some law business, and he gave me information I had not known. I had several papers signed by his grandfather, Isham Keith, and I knew that Thomas Nelson and he were neighbors ... "Mr. Luttrell here we are new to each other, and my grandfather and your gr-grandfather were the closest of friends, each appointing the other to settle their estates, the one passing first. Your gr.-grandfather died first and my grandfather settled the estate and was guardian ...' I have some accounts which show he had in his hands certain funds ..." George A. Nelson is a lineal descendant of the first emigrant who settled in the State of Virginia many years before the Revolutionary War, where he followed the occupation of a farmer and reared a large family, one of them named Joseph Nelson, whose son Thomas was the father of George A. Nelson. The entire family of Nelsons have been successful farmers in the State of Virginia and the County of Fauquier, where four generations lived, and where three of them were buried Thomas and wife were members of the Baptist Church. In Va. he was Capt. of a company of State Militia before settling in Davidson Co. Tenn. He was a Clay Whig. He was a school Commissioner. (Excerpts Davidson County, Tennessee Book by Prof. W. W. Golden Wedding anniversary for Judge Baker and wife. It was a surprise given by the children, which began between four and five o'clock when they and the grandchildren began to arrive with numerous and mysterious packages. Rev. Boyd of Woodland and Edward Davis of Sacramento gave talks, advice, and offered prayer for future happiness. After supper all went to the Baptist Church and received congratulations of numerous friends. (Miss Anna Baker absent as teaching in Kern Co.). Besides the presents a purse of gold from the children and grandchildren. Judge Baker crossed the plains in '49 by the Overland Route, when the gold fever was at its height, returning in two years. Just 50 years ago he wed Miss Nelson of Rappahannock Co., Va. They were of the first families of Virginia. Eleven ch., only five survive. They came to California in 1872, have resided in Colusa Co. (Excerpt from Colusa Co., Paper, ca. Nov. 2, 1902).

*Caleb¹Rector, Asa², AsaHamilton³Rector m. Annie Frances (Fannie) Rector, 3rd cos. They Had: Clarence Hamilton⁴Rector.

The village of Rectortown was originally named Maidstone after Maidstone, Eng. and was at one time incorporated but was later changed to Rectortown by Mr. John Rector who was a large landowner in this vicinity. ... Maidstone was changed to Rectortown the beginning of the 18th.C. and what is known as Atoka was previously known as Rector's Cross Road and consisted of Mr. Asa Rectors old home and one other house, about 1891 or 1892. Mr. Asa Rector built the store across the street from his home and rented same to 2 bros. by the name of Rector ... (Some said the Rectors were not related, in later years research work places all from the immigrant family. O.N.G.). A son of the brothers is the merchant at Atoka at present and also owns Clarence Rector's old ancestral home together with much acreage of the Asa Rector estate. When the store was established there the father of the present owner was able to get the P.O. in the store at which time the Government established the name of Atoka instead of Rector's Cross Road. There were four or five families of Rectors in Fauquier Co., Va. who do not claim relationship to one another.

Caleb Rector m. _____, had Abner, Asa ?. Abner had 6 girls, 1 s. Lewis. The oldest girl m. Edgar Woolf they had 2 dau. 3 s. (2 dau. and 1 s. living 1955). The s. in Rectortown, but he says he does not have knowledge of his mother's ancestry. His mother died when he was four yrs. of age. His Uncle Lewis Rector d. 1919 of "flu". The other five girls of Abner Rector m. and living away from Va. (Mr. Woolf doesn't think the girls know any more).

Caleb's son Asa Rector owned 1000ac. which joined his brother Abner who had near 1000ac. (Nelson Gibson sold land to Caleb Rector 1830, Fauquier Co., Va. O.N.G.). Asa Rector had likely the Samuel, Harvey, William, all large land owners. (Excerpts from letter from Mr. M.S. Triplett, Rectortown, Va. July 28, 1955). (See 21W(1)33-45) Triplett Family by Rev. A.H. Hord). (The John's birthplace, Maidstone, Eng., 1711. (36V191) father, Johan Jacob Richter (John Jacob Rector) an immigrant came to America 1714 (qv). Note. Correction wife was Elizabeth Fishback).

"I remember Clarence Rector and Miss Minnie from my childhood when we spent our summers in Rectortown, but my grandmother said they were not close kin, so their branch must be from another of John Jacob's sons." Mrs. Verna (Kenner) Parkinson, 220 Lindberg Ave., Frederick, Maryland, Aug. 5, 1955. A dau. of late Mr. H.W. Kenner, 1416 Ingrahan St., Washington, D.C.

(Excerpts from old letters by Rev. Templeman).

"I have a wide knowledge of our relatives because blood has always been thicker than water to me. I canvassed Fauquire before I was 14 years old and knew everybody related to me in that county and they were legion."

"Agnes (Nelson) did marry a Withers and then a Booth. I knew Cousin Agnes Booth very well indeed for I delivered, when young butter and eggs to her every week for several years in Warrenton. You may remember her husband, who was a harness maker and kept a harness shop. Cousin Agnes must have been 20 years older than my mother. She was a tall woman and what the Scotch would call "dour". She and mother (Matilda Trueheart (Nelson) Templeman were second Cousins."

When the research was done by Rev. Templeman the son, Dr. S. H. Templeman, Jr., wrote that when he was a teen age boy he spent the month of August over several summers traveling with his father to all of the old musty Court Houses in the Northern Neck and Northern Virginia where his time was spent in the Court Houses and he wandered around the town. ⁶² He was really fond of that work. ⁹²

(See the Overwharton Parish Register for many names of Bridwell, 1740-1750. Also, Stafford Co., Va. 1785 Census). (In the Overwharton Parish Reg. is the marriage of George Green & Elizabeth Whitson 12-23-1744. And son George Green born 2-20-1748. Likely these are George Green, Sr., and son, Jr. Then in Fauquier Co., Va. is the marriage Bond of William Green & Nancy W. Gibson, 2 July 1811 (James & Mary Gibson). Possibly from son William of George Green, Jr. O.N.G.).

In Washington D C. the War Records were searched for a War record for William⁴ Withers, b. 4-25-1726, not a record was found. If William⁴ Withers was in the Rev. the following could be this William b. 1726: Burgess Soldiers 1776. Va. (Cont'l Line) Vol. 1, 2, 3. In Vol. 3, p. 1248 Wm. Withers, 2 mos. 10 da. was private in Capt. John Ball's Co. The William Withers War record given (for the William⁴ Withers b. 1726) and wife Elizabeth Barbey (sic) stating that both are buried in the old family graveyard, owned by Virginia Nelson Ficklin, near Warrenton, Va.

... is not correct. This is the data for that William: He is a s. of James⁴ Withers & Cathrine Barbee 1st cos. making him a nephew of William⁴ Withers b. 1726. This William⁵ Withers b. 1747, d. 1788 m. Elizabeth Barbee, 1st cos. He was not in the Rev. War. He and wife are bur. in Ky. and not in Va. as stated. He d. in Lincoln Co., Ky., she m. (2) John Jones, Garrard Co., Ky. he d., she d. 1812 and is bur. there in Ky.

The War record given for William⁴ Withers, as William Withers, who signed pension applications: "Wm. Withers of '76, which is the greatest pride of my heart" was William Ramlin Withers s. of Thomas⁴ & Elizabeth _____, a bro. of William⁴ Withers. This William m. Martha Ann Asby. He (1756/7-1834). He got two pensions. In War 1775 to 1782, injured, lame for life. A nephew of William⁴Withers.

Another nephew, William Withers (1747-1821) was in the Rev. He became Second Lieut. He and w. Hannah Rosser d. Hardin Co., Ky. (See Withers America by Franz V. Recum. 1949. pp. 13, 17, 8).

O. William⁴Withers (15th ch. of James³Withers & *Elizabeth Keene) made his will 11-21-1803, d. 1-6-1804, pro. 1-23-1804, Fauquier Co. Va. Will Book 3, p. 492. In his will he mentioned "the tract of land on which I now live which was willed to me by my Father." This was part of the Licking Run tract. He left this to his 2nd s. Lewis Withers (given (qv)), not any ch. Martin Porter (Samuel Porter, Sr. will) m. Agatha (Agnes or Agga) Withers, the 6th ch. of William⁴Withers (qv). Their dau. Elizabeth Hord Porter m. George Nelson. Had 10 ch. (qv).

The old, old home was built after their*marriage, 1757. There has been a very large fireplace left exposed for several years as that side of the old brick house joined the old house and in that house or very large room their ch. were born, she d. there*1781; and the children of George Nelson & Elizabeth H. Porter, b., she d. there 1873. Several years ago a new room was built; it is the same size as the old place as it is built on the original foundation. The old brick house was built by George Nelson ca. 1829. The bricks were made on the farm. The Stairs and the staircase, in the old brick house, were polished to look as they did when made, ca. one and one half centuries ago. Steam heat, bath and electric lights have been installed. The large fireplace was restored.

Martin Porter w. Agatha Withers let George Nelson have the plantation, deed, Aug. 8, 1829. (John Marr, J P.). Then, gift deed, B. 35, p. 117, April 6, 1835. G.S. Ficklin w. Virginia Nelson purchased the home place after the death of George Nelson, her father, d. 1860. Deed B. 29, p. 280, Feb. 3, 1862. The plantation was sold by their son, James W. Ficklin to Mr. Smith of New York, Feb. 1928. Deed B. 121, p. 205. Mr. Kendall, Remington, Va., purchased this old Withers plantation ca. 1947. Col. Kendall resides there; he was in W.W.II. The name

"Licking Run" is at the gate, about five miles out of Warrenton, Va., on the highway towards Culpeper, Va., the home is less than a mile from the gate.

In 1947 and 1948 a Mr. Hutton, Real Estate, Warrenton, Va., 90 years of age then, said he remembered Elizabeth H. Porter Nelson. She had spent a week in their home; gave his mother a set of silver spoons.

The following names are the ones buried on the old Withers-Nelson-Ficklin place: 1. William⁴Withers. 2. Elizabeth Hord Withers, his wife. 3. Lewis Withers. 4. Kathrine Potts Withers, his wife. 5. William Withers, Jr. 6. Sarah W. Nelson, 1st wife of L.P. Nelson. 7. George Nelson. 8. Elizabeth Hord Porter Nelson, his wife. 9. Virginia E. Ficklin. 10. Gustavus S. Ficklin, her husband. 11. Fauquier Co , Va. W.B. 28, p. 400. Will of GEORGE NELSON.

I, George Nelson of Fauquier County State of Virginia do make this my last will and Testament.

First. I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth for and during her life in lieu of her dower and distribute share in my estate, three thousands Dollars either in money, slaves or other of my personal Estate as she may elect, if she should decide to take personal Estate to that amount instead of the money, the same is to be valued by my Executor here in after named, and at her death, the whole thus bequeathed to her whether it be in money or personal Estate shall with its increase be equally divided amongst all my children then living and the descendants of such as may be dead the latter taking per Stirpes, that is to say such share or portion as their deceased parents if living would be entitled to receive. Secondly. I direct that my Executor here in after named, shall in a reasonable time after my decease expose at public sale all the real Estate in pofsefsion (sic) remainder or reversion, together with all my perishable property, and after the payment of all my just debts, the proceeds of such sale shall together, with my slaves which are not to be sold to be divided equally amongst all my children living at my death and the descendants of such of them as may be dead, subject to the provisions in behalf of my said wife contained in the first clause of this my Will and subject also to the following qualifications, conditions and limitations that in the division and distribution aforesaid, my sons James M. Benjamin Franklin, Lewis P., the children of my deceased son Arthur B., also my son George W., my daughters Agnes Withers and Virginia Ficklin, and the infant child of my deceased daughter Araminta Gibson Shall be charged each with the sum of One Thousand Dollars and my daughter Sarah B. Weaver, with the sum of Six hundred dollars, as advancements already made to them respectively and to the parents of my grandchildren aforesaid at different times, thus making the shares or portions to be given to them out of my Estate lefs (sic) than the share or portion to be given to my daughter Cathrine to whom I have as yet made no advancement by the amount of the several advancements already made to them as aforesaid or either of them, so that such one of my children and the children of those who have or may hereafter die shall receive the same with others and no more. My object being to bestow perfect equality, the children of my deceased son and my deceased daughter taking their deceased parents share, or per stirpes. Thirdly. I direct that in case the infant and sole child of my deceased daughter, Araminta Gibson, shall die without children her share of my Estate in right of her deceased mother shall at death pafs(sic) to and belong to my son George W., and his heirs forever. Fourthly. I direct that in case all of my children of my deceased son Arthur B. shall die without children their share of my estate in right of their said deceased father shall be equally divided amongst all my children and the descendants of those who have and who may heretofore die, taking per stirpes. Fifthly. I direct that the estate herein devised and bequeathed to my daughters married and unmarried of whatever kind real or personal shall be held and enjoyed by them for the sole separate and exclusive use and benefit of themselves and their children respectively free from the control and liabilities of their husbands such as now or may be hereafter be married and in no wise to be subject to the contracts or liabilities of such husbands. I nominate Rice W. Payne and Lewis P. Nelson as trustees for my daughters. Sixthly. I direct that no charge shall be made against my daughter Cathrine for any expense attending the completion of her education. Seventhly. I give and bequeath to my said wife such articles of my household and kitchen furniture as she may deem necessary (sic) for comfort and convenience to be selected by her before the sale herein before directed to be made of them by my Executor. Eighthly. All the rest and residue of my Estate of every kind which may not have been therein disposed of I give and devise to be sold by my Executor and equally divided amongst all my children and their descendants as aforesaid subject to all the foregoing restrictions, limitations and conditions. The slaves of course to be divided, not sold. Ninethly. I hereby appoint Lewis P. Nelson Executor of this will with the request that he shall divide equally with my son George all commissions and profits arising from his said Executorship.

In testimony whereof I have to this my last will set my hand and subscribed my name this the 23^d day of April 1857.

Fauquier Co. Va. W.B.1, p. 52. Tilman Weaver Inventory. John Wright, Jeremiah Darnel, John?Sinchlear. 24th day of June, 1762. ordered to be recorded. Teste. H. Brooke CC.

TILMAN WEAVER was from Musen, Germany, where the old iron mines from early 14 C.; villages of Fishback and Holtzclaw 5 mi. west of Musen. In 1899 Webber and Utterback were there; not any Fishback or Holtzclaws. (See Kemper Family by W.M Kemper and Henry L.Wright). (See St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper, Va. by Dr. Philip Slaughter, D.D. Second Part by Raleigh T.Green, Culpeper, Va. 1900).

The German name of Tilman Weaver was Dilman Weber. (11V376). In (13V351, 367, 370) given as Dillman. His pronounciation in the Colony sounded as Tilman Wever (some of the family still use Wever), became Weaver. Tilman Weaver voted at election 1741 which shows that he was naturalized; others, too, all voted on members of the House of Burgesses - from Prince William Co., Va.

then - Fauquier, later. (See Boogher's Gleanings of Va. Hist. Poll List).

In 1741 Tilman Weaver had a grant between Crummey's and Chattin's Runs, N. of Ball's Horsepen, 539 ac., years later was owned by a descendant of Germantown, John Rector; on this land is Rectortown. A picture of the plain house of Tilman Weaver is opposite p. 130, 1721, at Germantown, Va., the oldest in Fauquier Co. The house was weatherboarded and stood for over 200 years. 1721 is the date on the polar plank, nailed above his door. The Church was near the Weaver house, ca. 1 mi. N. of the present Midland station. The grant for the town was ca. 1 1/6 mi. wide, and over 2 2/3 mi. long, extending from N.W. to S.E. along Licking Run. 1805 ac. 108 perches of land on Licking Run; ca. 8 mi. S. of Warrenton, Va.; this was patented by the three for all. The different families removed from Germantown except Tilman Weaver who had acquired almost all of the Germantown Grant. He died there in 1760. p.132 Tilman²Weaver s. of immigrant was Cpl. of the Fauquier Militia. (See Fauquier Hist. Soc. Bulle. Aug. 1921 to July 1924). (Book 1, p. 205, Fauquier Co., Va. is a signature of Tilman²Weaver, 22 Sept. 1772). In St. Petersburg, Florida is a family using WEVER, 1949, ancestor from Stafford Co. ANNALIS, in German abbreviation for Ann Elizabeth. ANN ELIZABETH CUNTZ, bt. 12-23-1709 (b. 1709 as bt. soon after birth early day). She was the wife of TILMAN Weaver, was one of the 1st Colony, dau. of *Jacob & Kathrine Cuntz. (Countz, Cunes, Coons). (The late Clerk of Culpeper C.H. - Mr. Warren E. The 12 families came through Baron de Braffenried for Gov. Spotswood to open iron works, ca. 10 mi. N. of Fredericksburg, Va., Germanna. (11V231). This is different from Newhern Colony mentioned in *Jacob, Kempers Gene; Joseph in Va. Mag.

History of St. Mark's Parish by Dr. Slaughter. The 2nd Colony ca. 1717, 20 families. 3rd Colony ca. 1719 to 1721, 40 families. (13V362-3). Germanna was the 1st County seat of Spotsylvania, 1722-32. It was originally in Essex Co., now eastern portion of present Orange Co., on a bank of Rapidan river, above Fredericksburg, Va.

(The Germanna Foundation had its first Picnic Sunday July 21, 1957. Several acres had been cleared of impenetrable thickets of trees, brushes and vines. A Mr. Flender of N.Y., a native of Siegen, Germany, gave the money to buy the forest. At the entrance of this "Siegen Forest" is a sign of polished cedar slabs, a swinging sign describing the site. A flag is above. A story was told that the three Wise Men were reputedly buried in Colonge, Germany, which is near Siegen, Germany, and that it is a place of Pilgrimage. A side road was used some 30 mi. down the river from the "Siegen Forest" between Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, to pass the site of the old mine and furnace. Dr. C.H. Huffman, Pres. Only three of them had been naturalized, Hoffman, Fishback, Weaver*, these three were sent to get land and title was with them: they were to make a lease for ninety-nine years. The patent was in 1724. They got 1805 ac. 108 perches and were to pay 1s Sterling money for every 50 ac. (*Weaver is a misprint as the three naturalized are: Hoffman, Fishback, Jacob Holtzclaw). (In the Kemper Family in United States by W.M. Kemper and Harry Linn Wright, 1899, pp. 34-35 tells about the three Germantown trustees. Excerpts from letters of Mrs. Mary Prudence McClellen O'Hara (Charles Albert O'Hara), 103 Center Ave., Weston, W. Va. 1958. She was b. in Cincinnati, Ohio.

⁵⁴When Mother and I went to Warrenton, Va., 1907, we stayed with a Mrs. "Captain" Carter ... next door was Mrs. J.B. Britton... a descendant of Captain Edmonds (afterwards a Col. in the Rev.). As you know Fauquier Co., was formed in 1759 from Prince William Co., and largely settled by people of English origin who moved here from the Tidewater bringing their slaves. In 1761, Col. William Edmonds formed a Co. to fight against the French and Indians. From the original Roll in the possession of Mrs. Britton there appears the names of Thomas Porter as Sergeant Humphrey Arnold as Corporal and William Wilson. The last two are my ancestors. They were men about 50 yrs. and I presume Thomas Porter was about, same. I am wondering if he could have been the father of Samuel and Thomas, Jr.? (Copied from an old History Almanac belonging to Mrs. Britton).

This same Mrs. Britton had an old family servant "Emily Wilson" from her Mother heard of the "Old Porter Place", home of John (Jack) Porter who m. a ___ Withers and who died at the gains. This place on the Fredericksburg Pike, near Metz, then owned by Mrs. Sarah E. Davis. "Emily Wilson" also told us about Mrs. Virginia Nelson Ficklin, at that time living at the old Nelson homestead 5 mi. from Warrenton. Her father was George Nelson and her mother Elizabeth Porter, dau. of Martin Porter and Agnes Withers Porter. We went to see Mrs. Ficklin and she is the one who pointed out the "Old Porter Place" and told the story of "Mammy's Curse". I am wondering if this Mrs. Ficklin and the "Old Nelson homestead" are ... of your line? Wouldn't it be funny if it is? It is a small world after all! We heard one especially fascinating story of a Porter breaking up, his land and slaves sold. As one Mammy was being taken away, she cursed the land and all who would ever own it "until it comes again into the Porter family". As the story goes, everyone who owned it had all kinds of troubles, tragedies and losses, and the land failing to produce. Finally, about 1903 or 04, a widow from Washington, D.C. bought it for a summer home, after a year or two the lands began to raise crops as in the old days and every thing else to go well. A lady who lived across the road told us this story; One evening she was on the front porch with the new owner and told her the story, and how every one was so surprised that she had broken the "Curse". After she had finished there was a long pause. Then the widow said, "Yes, but I was a Porter from Massachusetts". On our return to Washington we went to see Mrs. Sarah E. Davis at 1922 Third St., N.W. and she verified the story.

As I have told you we visited a number of the Porter homes around Warrenton. One of them was the Lewis Porter. There we saw "Uncle Charles", his servant who gave us much information about Martin Porter and his wife Agnes Withers. According to an old Bible he was b. March 21, 1762; d. April 3, 1835. See settlement of his Estate, Book 22, p. 210. He owned 13 slaves and family home, 6 mi from Warrenton. Agnes Withers Porter will dated 12-19-1848, pro. 1-20-1850, Lewis Porter, Adm. Col. Lewis Porter b.

1803. d. 1891. A sister Mary Porter d. 1886. We saw an oil painting of her she was called "Miss Polly". Lewis older brother, Major Samuel Porter d. 1853. Other daughters of Martin Porter were Nancy and Elizabeth Nelson. "Uncle Charles" was very old, showed us "The Old Gun" which belonged to Jesse Withers his son-in-law and he gave it to his nephew Lewis Porter; and Lewis Porter gave it to his servant "Uncle Charles" who said that Samuel Porter, Sr. used it in the Rev.

We were not in Warrenton long enough for Mother to complete the research or to connect the Virginia Porters with the Porters of Mass.

We found that Samuel had a brother Thomas and were the sons of Thomas Porter.

Mother also tried unsuccessfully to connect our Fauquier Porters with the John Porter of Norfolk, Va. We spent a mo. in Norfolk - but we met with broken ankles so were unable to continue. We went far enough to find that one or more of John Porter's sons went to Albemarle Co. - at an early date Prince William Co. ... and then Fauquier from Prince William. That is why Samuel served in the Rev. from Prince William when at the time of his death it was known as Fauquier.

Samuel Porter Sr. died between 21st and 26 Oct. 1807. His dau. Mary Porter m. 1771, her son b. 1772. Her license is in Warrenton, Va. C.H. I have a copy "20 pounds of tobacco, current money of Virginia" was the bond given to obtain it. Samuel Porter mentions his grandson Elijah Arnold as owing him "to be taken out of my daughter Mary Arnold's share." This Elijah Arnold m. Prudence Jackson, from whom I descend and for whom I am named. (Mary Porter m. Isaac Arnold). (Samuel Porter Sr. b. before 1732; m. ca. 1752).

Porter Mandaville is a family name in my branch where did it come from - It is not an Arnold or Jackson Name?

In the "Minute Book" Fauquier Co. under date, April 26 1779 that Thomas (Jr.) and Samuel (Sr.) Porter were appointed to view a road. Then in another record Thomas, Jr. and his father, Thomas were mentioned. Thomas (Jr.) Porter's will Book 3 p. 184 mentions his son William w. Sarah Porter and Thomas Jr. and Susan Porter; these were dau. of Samuel Sr.

During the Civil War Prince William Co., C H. burned with all records. One of the oldest records in Fauquier Co. is in "Minute Book" of a sale made by Samuel Porter and Eve, his wife March 26 1761. Eve signed her name.

Mrs. O'Hara's Mother was Floride Arnold (dau. William Edward Arnold, Lawyer & Susan Martin Wilson; he a son of Elijah Arnold) who m. John Harper McClellan of Penna. Mrs. McClellan d. 1919 in Ohio, bur. there; m. 1885. (D A R Vol. 67, p. 186)

(Mrs. O'Hara, DAR Vol. 86, p. 272)

Mr. & Mrs. O'Hara have one s. Albert Edward O'Hara, with the Childrens Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa. He m. June 13, 1959 in the St. Stanlius Cathredral in Scranton, Pa. assisted by the Reverend John Bomberger of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Apostles and Mediator in Philadelphia, to Jeanne Ann Nowicki b. Scranton, 6-26-1932. (Stanley Nowicki & Louise ____ of 605 S. Webster Ave., Scranton, Pa. Insurance and Real estate). Both are Polish descent, have been in this country for several generations. They were b. in Durea, Pa., near Scranton. He and all his bro. are Masons-as is her only bro. Bob.-a dentist in the Air Force). His father was instrumental in forming The Polish National Church in America-Protestant. They flew to Hawaii and spent three weeks. Jeanne grad. in nursing at the Hospital in Scranton; took her Anesthesia at Jefferson in Philadelphia. She is Anesthetist at Children's Hospital. She and Edward met there 1957. Res. "The Presidentials" "Washington House" Address: Presidential Apartments A 211 City Line Ave., Philadelphia 31, Pa. (And in (7H24) March 29, 1756-George II, Samuel Porter, Corporal 2046 lbs. of tobacco. O N.G.).

Records of the War Department show that Samuel Porter of Virginia was one of a number of prisoners sent from Quebec, Canada-dated November 8th, 1782 for exchange. His name appears with the rank of Private-which shows he was sent for exchange in October 1782 by way Champlain. Reference-War Department-Adjuant General's Office. 1486348. (D.A.R. #66501). The PORTERS came from Warwickshire, England-also, Devon, Dorsey, Somerset. There were more than 6 who came to the New World ca. 1630 to 1653. They were in Windsor, Conn., and Hingham, Mass. and other Mass. Settlements. Then some of the different emigrants (surnames) came down to the "Southern" section of "Virginia" Colony. The Porters in the different Colonies of the New World helped to develop the new sections. It is one of the oldest names in Eng. William de la Grande, who was a Norman Knight and went into England with William the Conqueror, 1066 A.D. -who became William I- and was given land for services in Warwickshire. His son, Ralph or Roger, was "Grand Porteur" to Henry I, King 1120 to 1140 A.D., at the Court Doors. When surnames were chosen, Porter was taken on account of the important office.

Porter Coat of Arms: Argent, on a fesse sable between two barrulets or three church bells of the first. Crest: A potteullis chained or. Motto: Vigilantia et vurtute. (By vigilance and valor). A. James Martin⁴Nelson (George³, Joseph², John¹, Sr.) s. of George⁴Nelson & Elizabeth Hord Porter b. 6-12-1816, Fauquier Co., near Warrenton, Va. At 16 yrs of age he went to Amissville, Rappahannock Co., where he remained for three years; then after time spent on education he looked for other locations. In 1838 he went to Copiah Co., Mississippi where his Bro. Benj. F. Nelson lived. He returned and went to Missouri, settled in Cooper Co. where he achieved unusual distinction. In 1840 he purchased a farm two miles west of Boonville and spent 20 years in successful agricultural pursuits. He was president of the first Boonville Bank and continued for years in banking business and through his excellent judgement was given credit for much of the success. He also served as president of the Osage Valley Railroad Co. and the Cooper Co. Agricultural Association. He was very successful financially and had an unique method-if disappointed in the ones with whom he had dealings; or if he had losses in his business dealings he met them in a manly and philosophical manner the defeats as the triumphs.

James Martin Nelson d. Fri. Aug. 15, 1902 at 3 o'clock A.M. He was 86 yrs. 2 mos. Five years before death he had a fall which deprived him of active service.

The funeral service was in the M.E Church, South. The massive metallic casket was borne by eight stalwart negro men, all of whom had been at various times in the service of the deceased.

There were thriteen honorary pall-bearers: Judge W. M. Williams, Messrs W.W Trigg, John S. Elliott, Wm. Johnson, J.T. Pigott, J.F. Gmelich, J.H. Windsor, F.S. Danwalter, W. Speed Stephens, A.A. Walker, E.W. Chilton, W.D. Adams, Wallace Estill. Bur. Walnut Grove Cemetery*.

The will of James M. Nelson placed the very large estate around $2,000,000.00, for gifts. The will is filed in Culpeper, Va., too: W.B.2, p. 522.

The will of James M. Nelson City of Boonville, Cooper Co., Missouri. Others than the family and Church, etc. are these. ... Thos. W. Russell, James H. Russell, stepsons. ... nephews Jas. J. Nelson and (George) Eggborn Nelson $2500 00 each. My sister-in-law Mrs. Pauline Rush $5000 00 and then to her daughters Mrs. Tompkins, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Sappington Dated Feb. 9 1897. Pro. Aug. 19 1902.

Ex-Atty. General R.F. Walker of St. Louis, who was of Morgan Co., stated in his letter of high praise that he never had heard criticism of the personal integrity or of the soundness of his judgement and compared the life of his friend, Mr. James M. Nelson he admired, by referring to the words of the old sage who inscribed, thousands of years ago the aphorism on the tile table, taken from the site of the City Nippur of ancient Mesopotamia, 6000 years before Christ. This was found before 1900 by German scientific explorers, likely an old Library, these words "Just dealing is the secret of right living." * (Excerpts from Boonville (Mo.) Advertiser Obituaries). 1. Rev. Abiel Leonard, Episc. b. Mass., 1742, d. Conn., 1777. (Chaplin for Gen. George Washington, early Rev.). 2. Nathaniel Leonard b. Vermont, 1768, d. Fayette, Mo., 1844. (Major in War 1812). 3. Nathaniel Leonard b. Windsor, Vt. 6-3-1799, d. "Ravenswood", Bunceton, Mo., 12-30-1876. He came down from Vermont through Pennsylvania and Ohio into Cooper Co., Missouri, where he settled, ca. 12 miles south and a short distance west from Boonville. It was 80 ac. at first-and became 2200 ac. This was in 1825 (Mo., a State, 1820), there was thick timber and as mentioned elsewhere, wild animals. This was "going on West"-not any Kansas City then. The black walnut grove was something Mr. Leonard wanted left growing as the place descended-he asked, not to be cut. In World War I, the place was marked for gun-butts-when the time came to cut them down, it was discovered that the trees were too old to use!

In 1839 he was the first to have the thoroughbred Shorthorns across the Mississippi river. The farm was noted to be the oldest stock farm in the world for cattle breeding. This was continued by Capt. Charles E. Leonard, his son.

²²A descendant of one of his Shorthorns sells for the highest price ever paid anywhere for a Shorthorn. Americus, a bull auctioned in the National Show of the Argentine Republic at Palermo, in 1913, brought 80,000 pesos, equivalent to $38,983.

²³In July, 1918, Lavender's Lord, donated for an American Red Cross sale was purchased by President Woodrow Wilson and resold to four Alabama breeders for $10,000. It was the prize bull of the sale. After the purchase it stood for 24 hours in the lobby of the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Ala. (History of Cooper Co., Missouri by Elston Joseph Melton, p. 313. 1937. Courtesy of Mr. Melton).

The ²⁴"Ravenswood" mansion of 30 rooms is Old Southern architecture with four tall white pillars. It was built about 1500 feet, from the highway, at the top of a slope. This historic home was built by Capt. Charles E. Leonard and wife Nadine Nelson, eight years after marriage. The knockers are brass hands purchased in Havana, of ancient origin. The love-seat was gotten in Washington, D.C. -White House remodeling sale, ca. 1880s. This mansion has a rich collection of portraits of four generations, work by George Caleb Bingham, paintings, tapestries, china, vases, porcelain figurines, carved chairs and tables, oriental screens, other rare furnishings, and a Knight's suit of armor bought in Italy. The old tall clock was made in Paris, Kentucky, 1790.

The office room of Capt. Leonard has all of the silver trophies and ribbons won at the International and at American Royal on his Shorthorn cattle. Nathaniel Nelson Leonard, Sr. had a 158 page book made on Shorthorn history-Historic Ravenswood. Nathaniel Nelson Leonard, Jr. has his father's rare collection of pipes-in Calif.

This beautiful old home was opened to the public in Oct. 1957 for the benefit of the Bellair Methodist Church, near by. There were over 1600 guests, gift, $1.50.

Nathaniel³Leonard's bro. Abiel³Leonard b. 1797 in Vermont, came to Missouri in 1819, located in Fayette, Mo. Lawyer and Justice of Supreme Court. He d. 1863 leaving 50,000 ac. of land in Howard, Saline and near by counties. The wife was Jeanette Reeves (Benj. H. Reeves who was appointed by the President to survey a route to the Mexican border-later known as the Sante Fe Trail). His home was built in 1836 and in 1929 old records of Missouri history were found as well as a letter dated 1776 from George Washington. (Excerpts: Family Records). (The Kansas City Star (Missouri), Oct. 6, 1947).

Abiel³Leonard's son Abiel⁴L. b. 6-26-1848, Fayette, Mo.; m. Flora Thompson 10-21-1875. He united with the Latter Day Saints and was P.E. bishop, Salt Lake City, Utah, 6-25-1888. Another bro., Benjamin G.³Leonard, res. was, Chillicothe, Ohio in 1839.

(The body was located in Aug. 1932. The Kansas City Times, Kansas City, Mo. Aug. 15, 1932).

He was a farmer and banker, living on the ancestral farm near Bunceton, Mo., which had been in the Nelson family three generations. A grad. of a medical school-preferred farming-he gave medical care when needed. In 1916 he was made an honorary member of the County Medical Society.

Dr. Arthur W. Nelson consented to be a candidate for Missouri Governor (D). As Missouri knew him so well he was leading the ticket (D) and came near being elected, but a false report on the eve, and no time to correct, was the cause of the failure. The Kansas City, Mo. Star had Campaign news items and pictures of the Barbecue given at the ancestral farm before election. Dr. Nelson and the farms are connected with the history of Missouri. He was six feet, had red hair and was a man of refinement and education. (Family data). (See 15W(2)151,160).

Brief data of some experiences of pioneers. The broadax to hew logs and pincheons-an expert in demand at 50¢ a day in corn, bacon or wheat, also deer skins, fur for money. Leather was made. School in log cabins-often dirt floor-studied aloud-noisy group was "studious". Wheat frailed with club or by horses going over the bundles in circle-then ground. All men had rifle gun shot pouch and powder horn, bullet molds, flints-for striking fire-for protection and food-many wild turkeys and deer. The wife had arms. Oxen were used; driver used plaited rawhide whip 6 ft. long; cracker on end 2 ft. long fastened to small end of green hickory pole-as long as both; 1½ in dia. at big end-the pop of the whip could be heard ½ mi. A skillet with cast iron lid was oven-coals on top-vessels molded. Neighbors not close; go miles, take wives and dau. to quilt-they did house raising, clearing land, rail fences, etc. At the end of day, the fiddle for dancing; all help each other, not paid. (The early days in Virginia and other States made their drinks for refreshment in homes-as the years passed there were many distilleries). Some pioneer roads became Government roads-from act of Congress. Good cows $5.00 in 1862. In 1850's the "courting" was on horseback(both) go miles to a meeting-or ride in wagon with her family-or go on foot. (See Hickory County, Mo. by F. Marion Wilson (was Willson)). (South of the Missouri River).

b. James Jacob ⁵Nelson b. Feb. 1951, Brandy Station, Culpeper Co. Va. "Mulberry" Green". The father and mother d. when the boys were small. He, ca. 9 mos., and his older Brother George Eggborn Nelson, lived with their maternal Aunt, Mrs. Martha Ann (Eggborn) Perry, "Meadow Hills", until they were of age for the private school, Upperville, Va. Their Uncle Lewis P. Nelson, Culpeper, Va., was their guardian. James J. Nelson grad. from the U. of Virginia, Charlottesville, June 29, 1871, in law. Of the West Range rooms, No. 13 was used by Edgar Allen Poe - also used by James J. Nelson. He left at once for Missouri and was in Boonville where his Uncle James M. Nelson and other relation were who had come from Virginia years earlier; then he went to Ft. Scott, Kansas where other Va. Nelsons had settled.

James J. Nelson had a farm near Ft. Scott, Moundville, Mo. where he and his bride, after marriage May 30, 1874, lived. Later, they located in the Lead Mining District which was producing much ore, in Joplin, Jasper Co., Missouri.

He was one of the early pioneers of Galena, Kansas, across the State line, another Mining Camp where he became a promotor, besides mining, of general interest and laid out the NELSON Addition, ca. 1880.

In Carterville, Jasper Co., Mo., a Mining Center he was with Mr. Ed. A. Bourne of Va., in Drug business. James J. Nelson got his attorney license and was City Attorney of Carterville, Mo.

He became Postoffice Inspector, out of St. Louis, Mo., and was four years under President Grover Cleveland (D), (1885-1889); and two years under Pres. Benjamin Harrison (R) (1889-91); he resigned.

He took the preliminary steps and through him the Mule carline was built from Webb City to Carterville, after 1885; from that was the Electric line between Webb City and Joplin, Mo. (Later the Electric line went to Carthage, Mo.). (See The State of Missouri by Walter Williams, 1904. Pictures of: p. 192 Interurban car; p. 562 the College).

James J. Nelson removed across to Webb City-the two towns joined, the Lead Mines were between Carterville and Webb City.

The three additions to Webb City, Mo., through James J. Nelson, enlarged the city as some farm land was purchased. Excerpt from the Inventory of Jasper Co., Mo. Archives: Jacob J. Nelson, a Webb City attorney, donated a site for the building of a Non-Sectarian College in that City, 1893; named Webb City Baptist College, 1896. The Baptists were from La Grange, Mo., Dr. Cook. They lost the building and it was the Great Western Normal and Business College, 1904. (The Baptist added $20,000).

(The Nelson's First Addition sales were used to finance the Nelson Collegiate Institute Non-Sectarian to sum of $10,000. One-half of the sale price of each lot was put in the College fund, the City added $10,000, making $20,000. The laying of the Corner stone of College was in 1894, at that occasion the societies of the County were assisting the Masons; the parade was almost a mile in length. The Corner Stone contains the name as founded: Nelson Collegiate Institute Non-Sectarian).

After 1896 the "panic" was the cause of progress of civic business to cease and business failed.

Then the Spanish-American War came, James Jacob Nelson responded to the call and served as Captain of a company to Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., July 5, 1898, which merged with another; he was asked by a relative, Gov. Lon V. Stephens of Missouri, to be 1st Lt. of Co. B. 6th Mo., Volunteer Infantry. They were in Jacksonville, Florida; then in Havana Cuba with Col. William Jennings Bryan of Nebr. and Gen. Fitzhugh Lee in Army Occupation. He, also, served as Commissary officer. Then he returned to Webb City, Mo. where he opened a law office.

James J. Nelson's health failed and he was in Leavenworth Soldier's Hospital; then transferred to Hampton, Va. where he died June 22, 1921 and was buried in old National Cem. Old Point Comfort, Hampton, Va. Grave 8630D.

Taken from the obituary by the late Lawyer A.G. Young, Webb City, Mo.: "...To the last he retained that rich old Virginia brouge which was a delight and joy of his friends and close associates. He was, in every way, the true Southern gentleman, much loved by those who knew him best."

Col. Hudson and family were going down the Mississippi River, during the War between the States, to Memphis Tenn., near an Island, the boat struck a sunken gun-boat and settled there. All the people aboard had to leave going down a steep plank to the small boats. May Hudson ca. 10 yrs. of age then, told about her never forgotten War-experience which frightened her very much. (The compiler asked in Memphis about that accident and was shown where it happened).

It is said that the early English Hudson ancestors came into England with William the Conqueror, 1066. The forebears of Henry Hudson, the discoverer of Hudson River, N.Y. (At that early date 16 pounds of tobacco was for a day's work, 80 lbs. tobacco for 1 £ Sterling). (The name was spelled as many as 25 different ways-and Henry, John, Richard, William were used more often). (See Hudson with Related Families by Roy David Hudson, 1957, for descendants of Henry Hudson, Explorer-and has origin of names. This line went into Va., he d. 1659 Northampton Co.). (Richard)

It was ca. New Netherland time the Hudsons went into N.Y. and the land at Chatham, east of Albany, was given in respect of Henry Hudson, Explorer. The old house was still standing in Chatham in 1908. Some removed to Newark and to Pine Hills Barrie Co. N.Y. Giffords, also.

(The late John Powers, cos.; doing research in N.Y. was told about one of the early Hudson families, related to him and the Compiler, was given land on the Hudson River). Benjamin Gifford, of family, had land and lived where Henry Hudson anchored his ship "Half Moon", Fri. Sept. 18, 1609. (Dutch, 1629; Eng., 1664; March GIBSON. Three bros. came with Wm. the Conqueror into England from Normandy, 1066. He was the one who gave the title to the Gibsons for services. (Gibbs in Norman origin, later, Scotch, some Gibbs became Gibson).

It is said that the Aborigines of England were Gallic Celts and for about 1000 years before Christ; the Scots were originally Gallic Celts; could be Druids and Phoenicians of Cadiz.

The Gibsons from Whelprigg to Westmoreland, Eng. ca. Edward I time, 1272-1307, the descendants of Scots house which has a different arms-the crest is a Pelican vulning herself-resemblance to storks. The Gibsons could have used the Yorkshire house arms. The Bishop Gibson Arms: Azure, 3 storks rising argent. Crest: a lion's gamb' erased and S. (The counties in England used Arms 3 storks: Yellana, Wilts, Lancaster, Westmoreland, Cumberland, London. Burke's Landed Gentry).

The ancestor, Jonathan Gibson, said to be a bro. of the Bishop Edmund Gibson has not been proven-but was a relation from letters (qv). (The Gibsons were originally of Parish Yanwath and later the Bampton Parish). (In the Parish Reg. of Lowther, Westmoreland, Eng. has a marriage of Edmond Gibson, 1608 (was a Parishoner of Bampton, and may well be a direct ancestor). (There was a John Gybson who m. 1611; Thomas m. 1635/6 also a Thomas m. 1636).

It is likely that William Gibson, yeoman, who was bur. 3-3-1675/6 of High Knipe was the father of Dr. John[#]Gibson, D.D. provost Queens College, Oxford 1717-30. Dr. Thomas Gibson d. 7-16-1722 a bro. of Dr. John[#]G., Phy. Gen. Royal Army; wrote Treatise on Anatomy, his 2nd m. was to Ann Cromwell dau. of Richard who was a son of Oli-ver Cromwell, she d. 12-7-1727, 69 yrs. Edmund Gibson, of High Knipe, bur. 7-23-1703, who m. Jane Langhorne and were the parents of Bishop Edmund Gibson (1668-1748) who m. Miss Bettesworth, had 12 ch., 7 lived. One dau. m. Dr. Christopher Wilson. (Coles MS-58 31 fo 43 British Museum).

In 1716 he was Bishop of Lincoln, 1720 Bishop of London. In 1713 his great work in Church law-Episcopal. In 1761 reprinted at Oxford-and is still the highest Church law. The Bishop of Canterbury was offered, not taken on account of age and infirmities; bur. in Gibson vault, Fulham. (McCrady History of S.C. 1719-1776. Under Royal Gov. 1889. pp. 51, 243-4. 1724 Bishop Gibson's letter to the Colony; to Christianize the slaves).

St. Patrick at Bampton Grange is stone, built 1726. It has 5 bells, a clock with chimes. In the chapel are 6 marble pillars, one in memory to Edmund Gibson & Jane his wife. The Bampton Parish Reg. dates from 1638. The original Register was purchased by L. D.S. Library, Salt Lake City, Utah. (This place is about 9½ mi. south of Penrith, Cumberland Co., Eng.).

(A note about the will of Elizabeth Gibson (George Smith) w. (1) of Dr. Thomas Gibson (qv.). She d. 1-26-169½, will dated 12-20-1687. The Dr. was the bro. of Edmund Gibson of High Knipe, Bampton, Westmoreland who was father by first m. to Jane Langhorne of Edmund Gibson, Bishop of London. The Cousin George Gibson, mentioned in wills, was native of Greenholm, parish Orton, Westmoreland, who was a cousin of Dr. Thomas Gibson and James was likely a bro. of George. He did live in Bedford Row, Holborn, a Solicitor, d. unm. 2-2-1733/4. His will dated 11-23-1733, pro. P.P.C. 4-13-1734. (84 Ockham). This will might give names, of family and relations, worth looking into, George Gibson, given above).

(In the Parish of Bampton Reg. of Westmorland, Co., England, (data sent to compiler from London) has ch. of Richard Gibson likely a bro. of Edmund Gibson who is father of the Bishop Edmund Gibson. Richard of Knipe had *John born 7 Dec. 1676—he had a bro. Matthew b. 20 Feb. 1679/80 (a twin to Jane). Probably the *John is the emigrant and would be a nephew to the father of the Bishop—the tradition said a bro. to the Bishop, this could get changed on relationship during those early years in the Colony. Then in the letter written in 1732 by Jonathan²G. Jr. (qv) mentions his Uncles Matthew and George, the above Matthew could be the one. The records placed in the Bampton Reg. are not described enough to know who all of them are. And, no doubt, all births etc. are not given, other data may be found. Then all of the descendants of this emigrant would be nephew, great-nephew to the father of the Bishop and not of the Bishop, if that John is the emigrant).

(In Col. Caroline by T.E. Campbell, in 1750 was a Jonathan Gibson, II, William, Machael, Mary(George) all had guardians. 1765 John, Peggy, Mary, Elizabeth (John) and Jonathan Gibson, II, was their guardian. Who are these? There are other Jonathans not identified in Va.).

There were three Gibson brothers who came to Maryland and data states that one went South, one into Virginia, not a name given, could he be Minor Gibson around Fauquier Co., Va.?

There were Isaac and Moses around Fauquier and Orange Cos.

The compiler learned about a *Jacob Gibson who m. Mary McCutchen, had 11 ch. Edwin, Jimmy, Woody, Anna, Ida ?... The compiler has a picture of Ida who m. James Harvey, and was told that she called Dr. Dorsey Gibson "Uncle Dorsey". (qv). This was given. The great-grandmother was a sister of Lord Francis Bacon, born in England and married in Maryland to Judge John H. Stuer or Shaer. *Jacob had a bro. Francis.

Her name was Abnett or Anett Bacon. Her portrait hangs in Windsor Castle, Eng. (must be from maternal side). Compiler saw a duplicate of the portrait). This likely Thomas Gaspin Gibson line. (qv). Who knows? Or of some brother of Thomas Gaspin Gibson.

5. Col. Jonathan Catlett Gibson (?1770- ?). m. Miss Mallory. They had: John, JONATHAN(C)⁶, THOMAS GASPIN⁶, Edwin and William, Frances and Nancy never m., Susan m. a planter, Betsy m. _____ Terrell a planter. John better known as Col. Jack Gibson first settled in Dumfries, Prince William Co., res. mostly merchants there; m. Miss Muschette, French; no ch. He went to a farm, called "Fleetwood"-it is historic from the fact that it was the winter quarters of a large part of the Federal army three miles from the town Brandy where a battle was fought. Three miles from Cedar Mountain where another important battle was fought, ... Va. was the battle ground. Col. Jack Gibson entertained visitors all the time. I don't suppose any noble in England ever enjoyed more comfort or kept a better table ... a large number of slaves ... wife never did a "hands turn" of work ... A lawyer.

Col. Jonathan C.⁷Gibson of Culpeper, Va. saw the three letters from the Bishop Edmund Gibson, London, the family had, which were destroyed by fire when the law office burned during the War, also, the Prayer Book of the Bishop. Before the Civil War Col. Jack Gibson had sent to England for souvenir of the Bishop and received rare china and cut glass. The silver and valuables were taken. b. James Jacob⁵Nelson told some war experiences while the soldiers were occupying Culpeper—he was ca. 12 years of age then—and said the farm where he was born was a battlefield. In the Record Book of U.S. War, p. 346, is this: Nelson farm, June 30, 1862; Apr. 6, 1865 Battlefield in Brandy, Va.

At Brandy Station there were about six battles-fences were torn down and the hedge rows were cut to the ground so the Cavalry had the fine location.

April 20, 1865 in a Guardian account: The school at Upperville was broken up in consequence of smallpox and the teacher carried off by Federal Army: therefore word was sent to Roanoke College. (Upperville was the private school the boys, George E. and James J. Nelson first attended, then on to Roanoke College, Salem, Va.). (Culpeper C.H. B. 16, p. 323).

A memorandum in the Book: The Army of the Potomac fell back this year, 1862, which caused a derangement in the Negro hires, etc. viz: Fayette and Walton ran off March 12; Bill June 18, Jim and Larkin were sent to Danville, Va. in Apr. Kitty and child died during the year. Winny and child, with James O. Harris. I gave him the hire so as to get him to send her to Lynchburg and no hire was received. Lucian had white swelling and fever and was a charge during the year. Lize, George and Harriet were sent to Lynchburg. The Federal Army occupied the County part of the year 1862, and occasionally since.

The home of the ancestor Jacob Eggborn, which was in the British Isles, has not been located. Eggbourgh, Coole, Yorks. Eng., near Scotland, has history which could be connected with the Eggborn name in Va. This large section was granted By William the Conqueror to Ilbert de Lacy and in the Domesday Book Eggbourgh is spelled Acheburg. In a Book by John Burton, 1758, on Domesday Book, there was an Adale Egburgh who gave three ac. (Hume said, The Domesday Book is the most valuable piece of antiquity owned by any Nation). The name was spelled many ways, some ending in boro and burg. Before the Conquest the section was called Chelinc-tone.

"The old Mill mentioned in the Domesday Book still stands just outside the village. ... According to folklore there was a church here in the year 800, but it was burnt down in one of the invasions. The present church dated from 1136 and is very interesting and quite charming. ... altered many times ... retains it's old world atmosphere. The Crusaders tombs have been removed...

"The Serpent Stone is now in the Church. Legend tells the story of the Dragon of the marshes killed by a boy with his father's sword. It was some sort of Loch Ness Monster which stole sheep, etc. ... tower struck by lightning eight years ago ... the bells not used on account of vibration. ... helped by Trinity College Cambridge. ... lead stolen from the roof, insurance claim £1200 ... purpose very well.

"The Vicarage is a very old place, quite charming except for damp. ... pre-Reformation times and has it's Powder closet or what I think was the Priests hole. ... a monastery in old days and was at all times open to the Crusaders". (Excerpts from letter by Rev. Bateman, Eng., near Eggbourgh).

His grandfather built the old brick home in 1852; years ago the Post Office was there on the farm as Eggbornsville. The old store building there in 1947, when the compiler was there. This tract of land was sold in 1825 by Mr. Thos. N. Butt to Richard Payne, Jr. who sold it in 1836 to George²Eggborn, who left it to his s. Perry J. Eggborn. It is several mi. w. of George²Eggborn home. The brick home different as every sixth row has the bricks turned endwise, the walls are 14 in. thick, of the 11 rooms, three are in the basement. The windows 12 panes with outside shutters. A large chimney on each end of the house. The 14X10 ft. one story porch has Doric columns, a wide cornice with dentils. Each side of the large door has small glass panes and below paneled insets. A fireplace in each room. The stair hand rail and newel post made of rosewood. The entrance from the road has English boxwood on each side of the walk. There is a frame addition, built years later. (Culpeper Star-)

*William H.⁵Eggborn, d. 2-15-1952. He led a very active life outside of farming and in business in Culpeper, Va. His work did much for the up-building of the community; one of the many services was 10 years with the County Board & Public Welfare.

3. Jacob S.³Eggborn b. likely on the old home place which he inherited from his father George²Eggborn in 1848 and lived there until his death 1906. The tract of land was owned by Leroy Dulaney and Joseph Dulaney about 1822. William Thompson in 1822. George Ficklin had it in 1830 and sold to George Eggborn in 1830.

The old home place is a very attractive square brick with four high chimneys, two on each side; eight inch floor boards in each room, built in 1834, four rooms on each floor; high mantled fireplaces. The basement was formerly used as kitchen and dining room; it was brick floor. The large windows on front down stairs have inside blinds. The house is on a hill and the first time the compiler saw it was in 1899. It was a grand view of the mountains, south. Then the pioneer days stories were reawakened when the large oxen and the cart close by were seen-the work for the day was finished.

There was a fireplace in the basement. The old house of two rooms with a fireplace, which at one time was a kitchen, it was back of home. The windows up stairs had small panes of glass. The wide front door had rectangular panes of glass on each side, and a very odd brass lock and knob-a lever that lifted the latch. The hall was lighted by a lamp hung from the circular moulding. The stairway main post at the foot-newel-was walnut and the rail with square balusters. Thick brick walls large six-panel doors, odd locks on the inside doors; modern changes by Mr. Witten, Jr. 1947.

The two story front porch across the front was built about the time the compiler was there, of eight white columns for each floor, by J.S.Eggborn.

Jacob Samuel³Eggborn was a sheriff of Culpeper Co., Va. He used the home for a temporary jail by placing bars over the windows of a room to keep the prisoners. He was a member of the Virginia Legislature.

Clairborne Fox Jackson was b. in Fleming Co., Ky. 4-4-1807; into Mo. in 1830s. He became the 13th Gov. of Mo. 1857-61. Elizabeth, w. 3, had reared her ch., the sisters ch. by him and those she had by him. The story is told that he became ill, fled from the Union soldiers, taking the State Seal and valuable papers and went into Arkansas. In order to get to her ill husband she took the ch. who were at home, and with servants, all in a buckboard-and got through the enemy lines before his death, 12-6-1862 Little Rock, Ark. (The cause of death was given as Pneumonia or some respiratory condition; it was said that he had an internal malignancy). The w. Elizabeth returned with the body. (Excerpt from The Reynolds Family by John R. Steding).

Governor Jackson, who at that time was a fugitive from Missouri because the Union Forces dominated the State. I remember hearing the tale that for this trip to Ark., the harness used was newly made and the leather, fresh or "green", because the regular carriage harness had been taken previously by Union raiders. When on the trip to Little Rock there was rain, the leather traces by which the horses pulled the carriage, stretched out until they were quite a distance from the vehicle. When the sun came out and the air dried them the leather traces contracted so much that the dashboard of the carriage was almost against the tails of the horses. (Excerpts; letter by Mr. John R. Hall, Marshall, Mo. News Editor, The Daily Democrat-News, 2-25-1959) (Nephew of Dr. Lester Hall, qv).

"Well do we remember the last lines penned by that hand

In which he told us that in this life we

uncertain stand,

And little did we think as that hand penned it upon the wall,

That our dear and noble teacher should be the first to fall,
 That gem which remains upon the wall
 Is immortal to us, one and all.

Let us walk humbly,

...

Let us walk kindly,
 We cannot tell how long this life shall last,
 How soon these precious years be over,
 past.
 Let love walk with us then."

...

Others may talk as you have done,
 But it will never be Prof. Nelson."

"This is the anniversary of your grandmother's wedding day-but the weather was very pleasant, as I recall it-in fact was a perfect June day-after wedding all went to your Great-grandfather Nelson's farm house below town for the big chicken dinner. In those days no had spring chickens early and I never remember seeing so much, and lots of cakes of all kinds-and what was then ice cream, really boiled custard frozen-it was luscious to me. (We had it after the ceremony before going to country, so this was second time in one day). Of course the dinner was bountiful of everything & more kinds of jelly & preserves. Hermione Gowan Strain's grandmother was brides maid. Florence never saw her married-hid somewhere until it was over. She never saw Alice married either." (Excerpt from letter, "Grandmother's" sister, Aunt Fannie Hill, to Mrs. Helen Swan Hardin, 6-25-1950, she d. later).

William S. Nelson was b. on the farm ... one mi. west of New Hope ... until 18 yrs. of age. He was possessed of more than ordinary ambition which carried him over obstacles and difficulties that would have completely disheartened ordinary beings. This was shown in his determination to obtain an education, which manifested itself in his early years, and failed not until he stood head and shoulders above his fellows. Obligated to work every hour that he was not in the school room, he would keep his books before him, and learn his lessons as he performed his duties. His schoolmates are wont to tell, how they have seen him axe in hand at the woodpile chopping away for dear life, when in some convenient place, open at his lesson his book was placed, at which he would glance as he had opportunity; and the native ability of his mind may be inferred from the fact that while his studies were pursued under such difficulties, he made such rapid progress that at the age of eighteen he was ready to enter college. 1879 his father moved to Canton, Mo. ... entered Christian U. there, and having the same ambitious determination that had characterized in his school days, he grad. 1873, carrying off the ... honors of his class. Taught school one year, Pike Co., Mo. At 22 years he was unanimously elected chairman of Mathematics, Alma Mater. 1878 he removed with his father and brother to Kansas, a year in stock business. Back to Canton, Mo. school; accepted call to preach in Savannah, Ga., Christian church. The change of climate and the arduous nature of his work he returned to the prairies of Kansas to recuperate. ... Took High School, Elsberry, Mo. ... forced to give up and take to his bed, Tuesday Feb. 3rd. ... He died at the home of Dr. Lee, Elsberry, Mo., Feb. 11, 1885, aged 32 yrs. 6 mo. 17 d." Excerpts from letter by Joseph T.⁴Nelson to James Richard⁴Nelson who was a s. of Thomas³Nelson & Elizabeth Green.

New Hope, Mo. July 8th, 1860.

Mr. Richard Nelson:

Dear Cousin: I take my seat to address you a few lines to let you know I have not forgotten you. I was on my journey ten days, I had a very disagreeable trip of it, the weather was excessively hot, and the dust was very bad, the dust almost put out my eyes, though after a long and tiresome trip I was by the mercies and favours of a kind and Heavenly Father landed safe in the embrace of my little family, which I found well and hearty ... It made Father very proud when I told him the prettiest women I saw were Nelsons, he says the old stock was celebrated for their good looks. ... almost find famine in Mo. ... surprise ... ever saw anything to surpass the corn crop in Mo. this year. ... come to Mo. this fall ... corn stalks in my field you cannot span around. The wheat crop is slim ... dry Spring. Oats are fine ... rain now ... against stacking wheat. I would like to hear your youngest married daughter sing a few more songs. Oh! ... sweet and melodious voice as She, would I ever tire singing ... sick. ... see Cousin Mary and Cousin Martha and talk more ... on scriptures.

I wish all would read God's work for themselves and feel as though God was talking to them and they would understand, ... exhausted at the present ... excessive hot weather and business ... since my return home.

... I am your affectionate Cousin in hope of eternal life.

Excerpts from a letter by Ira Thornton Nelson to James Richard Nelson in Virginia.

Hermitage, Hope, Mo., June 28th, A.D. 1860

Dear Richard:-

... It gave me a great deal of pleasure to hear from you and family, but was sorry to hear Cousin Milford Jones was no more, but why should we mourn our Friends? We shall all of us soon follow after he was ready first and has bid us farewell for that long home where no traveler returns. May we all be ready when the summons come to call us home. O may we all live as we would wish to die. May the Lord so guide us and keep us that our last days may be our best days. I am labouring under an attack of the Neuralgia, ... sorry crop of wheat, the farmers will not average a half crop, no not more than one third of a crop ... Oats ... tolerable, Meadows are very sorry, very few will be cut at all. You want to know if I am still a Democrat, otherwise was I as strong. I am a little stronger ... If we get Douglas ... a second Jackson in the Chair. If Baltimore Convention ...

... Wheat 1.25 to 1.30 per bu. Oats .40 to .42½. Corn .50 to .56. Rye 82¢. Hemp .80 to 1.08. ... quality. Bacon Sides 11¢. Shoulders 71/3¢. Hams 8½¢ to 9½¢. ... love to your wife and children ... to yourself. Now may the Lord guide and direct you ... is the prayer of your poor Uncle.

(Signed) Ira T. Nelson

CORRESPONDENCE

Oh I have found that friends who live
A thousand miles away
Have added color to my life
In written words they say.

I've found companionship so dear
Through looked for envelopes
Containing inspiration for
My deepest dreams and hopes.

I would not trade this priceless gift
For anything on earth
Because through correspondence
I have found what friends are worth.

For Page iii. An interesting statement by Dr. Dalton Vernon, of Burlington, Vt.-human relations specialist: to the 5th generation, back, 32 ancestors; to the 8th, back, 256 and to the 10th, back, 2046 ancestors. If your child is not like you-he may inherit something from the many ancestors. (See Los Angeles Times: 1-27-1960).

For Page 4. The Anglo-Saxons were in the Isle, England, and when the Danish began to invade the Island by inexhaustable numbers, who came in as others were destroyed-they were stunned by the continuing influx. At last, Alfred the Great was able to get the land, Southern section, adjoining the Thames, -held by the South Danes and their King Guthrum. The Danes settled and ruled, (qv) p. 3); then the Saxons would win and rule.

The Angles were exiled, slain, enslaved or expelled. (The Saxons had pushed the original Britons out of their native country. (qv) O.N.G.).

The Danish were raiders at the same time the Northmen were-Norman-in France. (William the Conqueror, desc. from one Norman).

It is from the Danish and the Saxon that is the source of the English language-not Latin, however, Latin for many words.

(The Book, 1874, said that the Scandinavians had ruled since 870 A.D. in England). (See The Norman People and Their Existing Descendants in the British Dominion and the United States of America. Henry S. King & Co., London. 1874).

"The march by day was a hunt; for the first time the solemn forest resounded, and the mountain peaks echoed and re-echoed with the clang of trumpets and the sound of guns."

There was no want of song and laughter and merry-making around the camp-fires at night as they cooked their suppers of game, and drank of "white and red wine, usquebaugh, brandy-shrub, two kinds of rum, champagne, canary, cherry punch and cider," which were among the stores they took to beguile the weariness of the way. "Some information concerning the "TREK" Westward from Tennessee to Texas by the family of Hugh Nelson and Mary Louise Nelson, and extending through the years 1840 to 1856. This information is hereby recorded by Hugh Aurelius Nelson, eldest living Grandson (Nelson) of Hugh and Nancy Louise Nelson, my Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Wimberly)Nelson, tells of trials and tribulations that our Ancestors experienced during the trip.

But many items of experiences here recorded were by "Word of the mouth" from Aunt Emiline Osborne, Grandmother Nelson's Sister, who made the trip as a member of the Caravan from Tenn. to Texas.

"Aunt Line" as we called her, lived to a ripe old age for those days and spent many a day visiting with our family, and passed away about 1890. Grandmother Nelson passed away on Oct. 9th 1877 and Grandfather Hugh Nelson passed away on June 9th, 1884.

Composition Personnel of the Caravan and their training Activities of Frontier Life.

Most members of the Caravan were Relatives (Kinfolks) of the Nelson Family and in some details as folling: Grandmother Reese, Grandmother Nelson's Mother, and an experienced Midwife; Hugh Nelson and wife, Nancy Louise Nelson; Aunt Emiline Osborne and husband, Noble Osborne a Carpenter, Cabinet Maker and Wheelwright (Wagonmaker); Uncle Bill Osborne Blacksmith and Stonemason, and his wife Aunt Betsy Osborne; Uncle James Short and Uncle Thomas Short, Grandmother Nelson's brothers and their families; and in addition to these, three or four neighbor families who desired to go West with the group. All this group were Rual people, mainly farmers and experienced in Ox-Drawn Covered-Wagon Transportation and Camping-Out Procedure, and eager to explore the new territory and find a new home that might be more desirable and satisfactory than their Tennessee environment.

All the men of this Caravan were experienced in use of the ax (axe) broad ax, adz, Crosscut saw, Maul and wedges, and other wood working tools. A group of these men could go into the primeval Forest with these tools in very few days fashion the timbers and construct a livable log cabin with dirt or puncheon floor, stick-and-dirt-chimney, stone fireplace, and roof covered with oak boards split from the forest and held in place by small straight logs the full length of the roof-with not a metal nail in the cabin roof or doors. These men were what we like to refer to sometimes as Rail-Splitters.

All the women of this caravan were experienced in the use of the spinning wheel, handloom, knitting needle and sewing needle (no sewing machine in those days) and they could fashion any garment of wearing apparel to look as well as some we see today. They could kindle a camp fire and prepare a delightful meal with the alacrity of some of present Chuck-Wagons.

This Caravan got all their earthly belongings together, loaded them into their ox-drawn covered wagons, said good-by to their friends, and left their old home community in Lawrence Co., Lawrenceburg, Tenn. in the Spring of 1840. They took along a few milk cows, and each family had one and some had two saddle horses, but most of the adults walked to lighten the loads in the Tar-

Pole-Covered-Wagons. The travel was slow on the dirt roads and they made only a few miles per day, in a West-north-westerly direction, and after a few weeks entered the South-West corner of Missouri, in New Madrid Co., after spending days being ferried across the Mississippi River. They built log cabins and spent the winter in this region as the first frosts were on the pumpkins, and they never traveled in the winter time. They spent the next eight years in crossing Missouri from the East to West. They had to finance their trip as they traveled and this meant a stay of one, two, or even three years in some places to earn money, repair wagons, acquire and breaking new ox teams, and outfit for another summer's travel. Southern Missouri then was a frontier region, thinly settled, with few towns of any size and farming communities many miles apart. A few counties and towns that Aunt Line mentioned were: Popular Bluff, Butler Co., Van Buren, Carter Co., Houston, Texas Co., and Springfield, Green Co., and Ozark Co., on the State line adjoining the State of Arkansas. *several

Our Father, John Edward Nelson, was b. Nov. 10 1848, in Southern Mo., but we do not know the City or Co. of birth. Uncle James Short and family left the Caravan as they neared the Western Mo. line, joined a group of Forty-niners and went to California, but did not dig GOLD, but raised wheat and cattle to feed the GOLD prospectors. This turned out to be more profitable than GOLD digging, as flour and beef were scarce and high priced-flour sometimes ONE DOLLAR per pound and beef TWO DOLLARS per pound.

Uncle Jim Short visited our family in the early 1880's and told us how he would thresh his wheat and sack it about June and leave it in the field until Oct. and not get enough rain on the sacks to wet the wheat; and how he would start his herd of cattle slowly up the Cascade Mts. about May and slowly follow the rains and grass to the higher hills until the FIRST FROST and then slowly follow the FROST LINE back down to the valley and by this STRATEGY have plenty of rain and green grass for his cattle all summer. Then, as now, in the valley, it rains all winter and is dry all summer, and in the mountains it rains all summer and snows all winter.

In the spring of 1849, the Caravan crossed the State line into Arkansas and traveled south through the Ozarks and leisurely through all of Western Arkansas and wintered in Southern Ark., and in the late summer of 1850 moved on into Tyler, Smith Co., Texas.

Texas was very sparsely settled at that time, and Indian raids were common as far East as Fort Worth and Dallas, and all horses stolen and families killed and scalped, and the Caravan remained in Smith Co. until the late summer of 1856 when it moved East to Parker Co., Texas.

For twenty-one years until 1877 the Indians made raids into Parker Co. murdering and stealing, and keeping the Frontier Settlers in fear turmoil.
